Foreign Ministers Authorized to Send Formal Protest to U. S. Against Enactment of Immigration Bill, Barring Japanese—Papers Call for Decisive Measures

TOKIO, May 28.—(By the Associated Press) Deep regret that the United States has enacted the immigration bill, including a clause barring Japanese, is voiced in an official statement issued late today by the foreign office.

Formal Protest

TOKIO, May 28.—(By the Associated Press) Foreign Minister Matsui today asked and obtained the assent of the prince regent, to the forwarding of Japan's protest against American enactment of the immigration bill, barring Japanese. The proceeding was extraordinary, and is interpreted as indicating that unusual importance was attached to the document.

The foreign minister went to the imperial palace immediately after the extraordinary cabinet session, called yesterday to give final approval to the protest, had ended. The regent sanctioned the protest.

The protest was placed upon the calendar for June 1.

Hearing Today Before Board of Public Utilities Relative to Price of Gas in Lowell

Petition Signed by Gas Consumers and Filed by Representative Thomas J. Corbett Responsible for Hearing — Statement Submitted by General Manager of Lowell Gas Company Explaining Gas Rate Schedule — Petitioners Claim That Recent Change in Rates Represents an Increase Rather Than a Decrease

(Special to The Sun) STATE HOUSE, Boston, May 28.—The first in what may be a series of hearings in connection with gas rates now charged in Lowell by the Lowell Gas company, was held today before the board of public utilities with gas company officers, state representatives, city officials and citizens taking part. The next hearing will be held on Thursday, June 12.

The hearing was the direct result of a petition filed with the department of public utilities by Representative Thomas J. Corbett and certain other gas consumers of Lowell, asking for a rate reduction. Practically the entire session this forenoon was taken up by the reading of a statement by Charles R. Pritchard, vice president and general manager of the Lowell Gas company, which explained in detail the rate schedule which went into effect April 1 and which now is under fire by the petitioners. Throughout the hearing, there were expressed marked differences of opinion by the petitioners and by the gas company officials as to whether an actual reduction in rates had been made. The petitioners contended that instead of a decrease, there has been an increase and that small consumers and people less able to pay are the hardest hit, while on the other hand, the gas company officers declare that there has been a general decrease of five and a fraction cents per thousand cubic feet. Representative Thomas J. Corbett was the principal speaker for the petitioners and he strongly expressed any continuance of the hearing, saying that he believed nothing could be gained from further study and declared that it must be evident to the members of the utilities commission that the gas company has imposed an increase in rates at a very ill-advised time, when industrial conditions in Lowell were not good. Commissioner David A. Ellis, who presided at the hearing, said he felt further hearings were not only necessary but also to all parties concerned in order that Mr. Pritchard's statement and accompanying figures could be given sufficient study. Attorney Albert E. Pillsbury of Boston, representing the gas company, although most of the statements made in the company's behalf came from Mr. Pritchard.

GIRL BANDIT UNDER ARREST

18-Year-Old Woman With Baby in Arms Robs Bank at Farmington, Ills.

Puts Gun in Hand of Arm Holding Child, Picks Up $1158 and Flees

PEORIA, Ills., May 25. Carrying her two-year-old baby, Norma Anderson, 18, yesterday robbed the Stearns bank at Farmington, Ills., of $1158 and forced a taxicab driver, the town marshal's son, to aid her escape to Hanna City, where she was arrested and the money recovered.

After fake telephone calls had lured the marshal and day policeman away from Farmington, the girl ordered a taxicab and was driven to the bank. She faced Clyde Stearns, the cashier, with a command to "Stick 'em up" and when he treated the matter as a joke, produced a pistol from a leather holster beneath her blouse. Stearns complied with her reinforced command to fill up a sack she placed on the counter, using $1 bills.

The girl shifted the pistol to the hand of the arm holding the baby, picked up the sack and dashed to the waiting taxicab.

GOVERNMENT FACES CRISIS

British Parliamentary Experts
Declare Government Faces
Serious Crisis in Commons

Conservatives to Reintroduce
Motion to Reduce Minister
of Labor's Salary

LONDON, May 28.—(By the Associated Press) The parliamentary experts writing in this morning's newspapers declare the government will again be faced with a serious crisis in tomorrow's session of the house of commons, when the conservatives re-introduce their motion to reduce the minister of labor's salary. This motion was talked out last Thursday after a closure division in which the government had a majority of only 34. On that occasion several conservatives were absent and the promoters of the movement believe that with the presence of these members and the abstention of a section of the liberals, they will be able to defeat the government.

The cry of "Wolf", however, has so often been raised that the public is becoming skeptical and but for the statements in governmental quarters that the government, if defeated, will treat the question as one of confidence and recommend dissolution of parliament, this new alarm would probably not be recorded seriously.

PLANS FOR MEMORIAL DAY OBSERVANCE

Members of the Broadway club have nearly completed plans for a most impressive Memorial day observance, centering about the Acra Boys' memorial monument in Fletcher street, opposite the Broadway clubhouse. A large number of club members last night attended an executive meeting to make up the official program. President William A. Walsh is chairman of the observance committee.

As in former years, the Broadway clubmen will honor their comrade soldier dead with elaborate and impressive ceremonies. The main observance will be conducted at the monument at 1034 A. M. Memorial day morning. Mayor John J. Donovan will be among the speakers; there will be singing by an excellent quartet and music by a brass band, among other appropriate features to be announced. The soldiers' monument will be decorated with a wreath—the Broadway club's tribute. Individual memorial plaques received from relatives of the soldier dead whose names are inscribed upon the monument, will also be placed at the foot of the statue.

The honor roll of the Acra Boys' Memorial monument, includes 36 names and two to be added. The list comprises nearly a third of the entire roster of the World war dead of Lowell. Assisting in the club's memorial program will be delegations from the American Legion, the Lowell Navy club and the Disabled American Veterans of the World war, all of whom were well represented at last night's meeting called to further the Memorial day plans. School children living in the Acra have been invited to participate in the exercises. Each scholar attending should carry a small American flag. A firing squad and band is to be provided by a local military organization.

WOMEN'S CLUB MEETING

Business and Professional
Women's Club Members
Meet in Middlesex Hall

Interesting Address by Miss
Blanche Cheney of the
Normal School

The regular meeting of the Business and Professional Women's club was held last evening in Middlesex hall with Mrs. Rose Jordan Hartford in the chair. Miss Eleanor Kivet, secretary, read the minutes of the previous meeting which were approved as read. Miss Fannie Mansour, chairman of the membership committee, reported that she had named Miss Anna J. Devine, Mrs. Mary McCann, Mrs. Lilla G. Evans and Mrs. Jessie Howe as members of the committee. Mrs. Fred Nevery, chairman of the whist party to be held in Liberty hall early next month, reported that plans for the affair had been completed.

Following the business session an enjoyable program was given by Miss Anne L. French, who entertained with numerous delightful vocal selections, and Miss Helen Osgood, who offered several original monologs. Miss Blanche Cheney of the faculty of the Lowell State Normal school was the speaker of the evening and her talk was most interesting. Speaking on co-operation and community work in general, Miss Cheney said in part: "The women today have a wonderful opportunity before them. We are, however, living in an ever changing world. It seems that the world is so complex that we do not exactly know where woman fits in, how she is to play her part and play it rightly."

"One hundred years ago the land was one in which farmers raised their own food, women spun the wool into cloth and from that fashioned garments for the entire family. Today we are able to go to a store and in half an hour purchase an entire outfit. Today the food is raised for us, in fact prepared for us. We are no longer an independent nation. In former days the father killed the calf, tanned the leather and made shoes for his entire family. Today we find that shoes are made by machines and that from 50 to 100 different operations are necessary for fashioning the smallest sandal."

"What are we going to do? How are we to help our city, our state, our country? We must get down to fundamental principles. We must develop the qualities of co-operation and better service."

"The problems today are enormous. There are the economic problems; capital and labor; the place of woman in industry; learning the proper way in which to use our leisure hours since the institution of the 8-hour day; the immigration problem; the Americanization problem; the question of co-operation. We must study the thing, discuss it from numerous angles. We must view the question from numerous points. To do that we need straight, independent thinking. We must be open-minded not only in dealing with questions but in dealing with people. We must be tolerant. No matter what religion a fellow being belongs to, no matter what nationality he proclaims, if that fellow does the thing and does it the way it should be done, we must recognize him."

"One of the most difficult things today is to get the other fellow's viewpoint," said Miss Cheney. In illustrating this topic Miss Cheney read a portion of a letter written by a Chinese minister who had been visiting in America. He characterized the Americans as uncivilized with no sense of dignity. "Women appear to most make bad husbands, they adore them and they are dragged about large rooms to the tune of bellish music." At least we have his viewpoint," stated Miss Cheney.

"It is very difficult to impress the necessity of responsibility upon the people today," continued Miss Cheney. Here she read a portion of Albert Hubbard's "Message to Garcia," at which instance Roane was given a letter to deliver to Garcia. "He took it without asking where he is at, and after three weeks of treacherous traveling through the lines of the enemy he returned—he had delivered his letter." "What we need today is a stiffening of the backbone; the concentration of energy and the will to do a thing. We must avoid this shifting of responsibility. The fellow who can do his work when the boss is away as well as when he is at home; in other words, the fellow who can deliver the message to Garcia is wanted in every sphere, in every office, in every corporation."

"To work happily and efficiently we must have the spirit of co-operation. We must have definite projects, and we must have set methods by which to put these projects into execution. We must think clearly and we must exercise unbiased judgment. Fanciful regard for the common good and for citizenship in general is what the world needs today and it is the business and professional women who can do that. It is by developing these qualities that you can be a mighty powerful factor in your city."

At the conclusion of Miss Cheney's address, Miss French gave a number of songs which were greatly enjoyed. Miss Margaret Martin proved an entertaining accompanist to Miss French.

The next meeting of the club will be held June 10 at 7:45 o'clock at the rooms of the Kimball School in Central street. Mrs. Kimball, a member of the club, will be the hostess of the evening.

DRUG ADDICTS GRILLED

Questioned in Connection With Kidnaping and Death of Chicago Boy

CHICAGO, May 28.—Investigation of the death of Robert Franks, 13-year-old son of a Chicago millionaire, whose body was found in a railroad culvert last Thursday just before a $10,000 ransom demand was delivered to his parents, assumed a new angle today, when officers began pounding up drug addicts for questioning.

Evidence that narcotic users kidnaped the boy at the behest of a well-informed principal, had been in the hands of authorities several days. It continued.

According to State's Attorney Grove, the investigators expect to find some user of drugs sufficiently well acquainted with the movements of the Franks family to have contrived a kidnapping plot and engage someone else to carry out the plan.

"The killing was an accident," the state attorney said, "and everything that followed was undertaken to cover the accident. Drugs will be found at the bottom of it all."

WILL OPPOSE BUS LINE PERMIT

Opposition to the granting of a permit to Harry L. Pevey and Horace C. Bailey to operate a bus line from Cardinal O'Connell parkway to Pelham by way of Dramet as petitioned to the city council last evening, will be entered by the street railway company at the public hearing on this petition held for June 17.

The railway company's opposition will be based on the ground that this bus line will operate in competition to the street railway from the city line to Cardinal O'Connell parkway and that such competition would be detrimental to the efficiency of the already established street railway service.

In outlining the opposition of the street railway company, Manager McCormick of the local division said his company would not oppose the permit for the bus company would operate only in the end of the Yawbuckville or Moody street car lines and transfer passengers to electric cars at either of these points.

The street railway company, he said, will oppose every application for a permit for the operation of motor busses on the street railway lines, but only for the reason that passenger traffic here is only sufficient to support one mode of service and the regular street railway service, which is already established and controlled by state-appointed trustees, should be the favored service. If any competing bus company gets a foothold here, he continued, it will only be a short time before others come in and take a great deal of the electric railway's traffic, resulting in curtailed electric car service. The result of this would be, in his opinion, that many of the bus lines would fail to pay expenses and would discontinue service, leaving the people of the city who now depend upon car service would be without any service at all. The street railway company, he added, does not depend upon people living in the streets where car tracks are laid as the source of revenue, but the revenue from sections of the city which are within half-a-mile of a street car line as source of revenue which should not be interfered with by bus lines.

REPORT LARKIN HAS FLED FROM IRELAND

DUBLIN, May 28.—James Larkin, head of the Transport Workers' union, a number of whose followers were arrested Monday after they had taken possession of the disputed labor headquarters in Liberty hall, left Ireland last night for an unannounced destination. It was stated in the Chancery court here today in a hearing on an application for an attachment against him.

A strike of 4000 workers in the port of Dublin was called Monday as result of the arrest of the Larkins, but after the men arrested had been released on bail, Larkin called off the strike that afternoon.

The applicants for the attachment, members of the executive committee of the Transport Workers' union, who recently obtained an injunction against Larkin in connection with the occupation of Liberty hall, when the case was called to court, counsel for the applicants said Larkin had left the country last night, and that the applicants proposed not to sue him.

The master of the rolls assented to the discontinuance.

Japan Will Not Accept Injustice

bles for transmission to Ambassador Hanabara at Washington, shortly after the foreign minister had left the imperial palace. The ambassador will deliver it to Secretary of State Hughes. The foreign office announced it would issue a statement.

This statement, which the Japanese minister Hattori, after the protest had been despatched, received Japanese newspapermen and urged them to exercise moderation and restraint in their accounts and comments regarding the exclusion matter.

Hannabara to Leave U. S.

TOKIO, May 28.—(By The Associated Press.) The foreign office two days ago called Ambassador Hannabara permission to return to Japan as soon as Japan's protest against the exclusion provision of the immigration bill, on which the cabinet acted today was finally formulated.

This statement followed Hannabara's repeated requests for leave. It is understood that the ambassador is likely to leave Washington within a fortnight. Officially he is merely taking a vacation but foreign office officials admit that there is no chance of his return to Washington. It would not be proper, they explained, to speak of resignation since he is expected to remain in the foreign service. He is merely seeking a change of post.

Deeds of Violence Hinted

TOKIO, May 28 (The Associated Press).—A bitter editorial in the Japanese press today hints of the possibility of violence in connection with the exclusion of Japanese. A majority of the newspapers express disappointment at the action of President Coolidge and call his statement following his signing of the bill, unconvincing and unsatisfactory.

"The statement," says the Hochi, "may satisfy America, but never the Japanese. It is a statement which does not satisfy the people of the city who now depend upon car service would be without any service at all. The street railway company, he added, does not depend upon people living in the streets where car tracks are laid as the source of revenue, but the revenue from sections of the city which are within half-a-mile of a street car line as source of revenue which should not be interfered with by bus lines."

Washington Retient

WASHINGTON, May 28.—Until Japan's protest against the new immigration law has been subjected to a painstaking study, no responsible official here will comment on the bill.

In view of the usual importance attached to the bill in Tokyo, the president and Secretary Hughes are anxious that the subject shall not be complicated by any premature expression of opinion.

The administration regards the question of regulating immigration as a domestic one, but at the same time it stresses that in the application of that principle as friendly governments.

Consequently high officials here are deeply regretful that a sequence of events accompanying enactment of the new law have developed what Tokyo appears to regard as a serious issue.

It is very much hoped that this situation will be softened appreciably when the full mature attitude of the Japanese government becomes known here.

HOFFMAN'S FATE IN HANDS OF JURY

NEW YORK, May 28.—The case of Harry L. Hoffman, motion picture operator, charged with the killing of Mrs. Maud Bauer, last March, will pass into the hands of the jury today, if cross-examination of the defendant ends, as anticipated, early this afternoon.

Hoffman, on the stand yesterday, declared that Barbara Pals, the 12-year-old girl witness, who last identified him as the man who had killed Mrs. Bauer, had been in the room, but he did not recognize him until after she had been closeted with the police for a considerable period. He mentioned a red-headed boy, who after looking at him, had said positively he was the man.

WOODEN LEG MADE HIM WALK LIKE DRUNKARD

PITTSBURGH, May 28.—That his wooden leg, which caused him to stagger, caused him to walk like a drunken man, was the defense of Thomas B. McDonald, foreman in a saw-making plant in that city, today, when he was tried on a charge of operating an automobile while under the influence of liquor. He was adjudged guilty.

State patrolmen and municipal police testified that the defendant walked unsteadily and some said they detected an odor of liquor on his breath at the time he was arrested.

It developed that one of the patrolmen were aware of the fact that he had an artificial leg.

Time Limit on Episcopacy

majority report from the table was defeated, however, by a 43-22 vote. The action of this conference is in violation of the constitutional rights of the membership of the church," Judge Rogers said. "No court in America would close its doors in the face of a man who came in a proper way and sought a decision. When it comes to a question of law on any subject this conference has no right to run away from a decision and put the matter on the table."

The majority report held that to limit the life tenure of the bishops would tend to "do away with episcopacy, which is forbidden in the third restrictive rule of the church."

"In our church," the report read in part, "as in all churches having an episcopal form of government, it has always been the understanding and the practice that the bishops, like the ministers, hold their office for life subject to removal for cause, and in such cases the conference has the power to remove them. To limit their tenure to a fixed and arbitrary period, we think that the power to do this does not exist."

"A limited time might be desirable or undesirable, but the episcopacy itself is a permanent institution," the report continued. "It is not to be taken away with episcopacy."

Debate Van Camp Dies

The death of Delegate Andrew N. Van Camp, a lawyer of Hingham, S. D., was announced at the conference. Mr. Van Camp died of bronchial pneumonia, after three days in a local hospital.

The conference approved the appointment of committees to visit the platform committees of the republic and democratic parties, and ask for the inclusion of plank in their effective enforcement of the Volstead prohibition enforcement act, and against its modification. The dismissal by the committee on the episcopacy of complaints against Bishops W. F. Anderson, F. J. McMichael, and W. L. Henderson, C. H. Mitchell, and W. L. Henderson, was also approved. The complaints were not specified in the reports.

Other reports passed included recommendations for carrying out the consolidation of the Benevolence boards, decided upon last week, and a proposal to appoint a committee of seven members to make a study of the inclusion of plank in the platform of churches and other religious bodies in the forwarding of world peace.

Police Charge Violation

charged with "unlawful possession of hypodermic needles" and other offenses were increased from $500 to $1,000. The increase in bail was allowed by Judge Dickman this morning, on request of the prosecuting officer, Deputy Hugh Downey, "because of the circumstances." Mr. Buckley argued against an increase, saying he would have difficulty in securing such a large security. He asked that the bail be made that he get medical attendance as he needed it right away.

The latest development in the case took place this morning when Officer William Liston of the local liquor unit, with State Officer Otto and Michael J. Murphy, searched Buckley's residence in Lawrence. They found 15 boxes of morphine tablets of one-fourth and one-eighth grains. Some of the boxes contained six tablets and others 24 tablets. A hypodermic outfit was also found together with a large number of filled prescriptions. Some of them were rabid.

It was about a month ago when local officers, working in conjunction with state authorities, started a concerted campaign to clean up dope peddlers in this city. Sorat, Michael Winn, Officers William Liston, Alfred Conner, Pauline Smith, John Leary and State Officers Otto and Michael J. Murphy were detailed to the work and spent hours following up clues.

Last week, Officer Conner and Murphy arrested a previously unsuspected woman who was found to be a drug addict. She has since been placed in a sanitarium and is now undergoing a cure process.

Not until yesterday, however, did the police get a real clue. Officer Liston noticed a woman entering a drug store to have a prescription filled. She responded with the description of a suspect known to the officials and the officer notified headquarters. Other officers went to the scene and followed the woman from the drug store to a machine, driven by Samuel Buckley of 64 Butler street, Lawrence. The driver's wife, Anna, was with him at the time and both were placed under arrest with the girl.

When searched at the police station, four hypodermic instruments, 29 needles, 162 morphine tablets and a large supply of matches were found on the Lawrence couple.

JURISDICTION OF COURT OF BISHOPS UPHOLD

CLIVELAND, Ohio, May 28.—(By The Associated Press.) Jurisdiction of the Court of Bishops of the Protestant Episcopal church to try Rt. Rev. William Montgomery Brown on charges of uttering doctrines contrary to those held by the church, was unanimously upheld by that body today. The ruling announced orally in two brief sentences by Bishop John G. Murray, president of the court, did not give ground for the decision.

Lowell Gas Hearing

By taking our coal through Mystic wharf, Boston, we save the advantage of having the coal covered in transit up the coast, but we pay 35¢ per gross ton for unloading at Mystic, and 132¢ per gross ton freight to Lowell, so that we have to pay for gas coal 1.67¢ per gross ton, which is from 13 to 15¢ per thousand feet of gas sold, more than seaport coal. In the vicinity of Boston, including 13¢, if we did not have to pay it, from our $1.25 rate, would figure $1.22 which is in line with the seaport cities.

We are under the same disadvantage as to gas oil. We have to pay nine tenths of a cent per gallon for freight from unloading ports, such as Beverly, to Lowell. The increase in cost of coal is offset by the higher selling price of coke, but the returns to the department for the year 1923 show that our coke receipts per thousand feet of coal gas made are not more than the average seaport cities.

During the month of April 1924, when we took this rate was in effect, a number of customers accepted our invitation to call at the office for explanation of the new rates. Practically all of these customers were using less than a thousand feet per month, and it pleased us that out of our 2,700 customers, only a few more than a month after the new bills began to go out, calls at the office for complaint or inquiry practically ceased.

This indicates that there is no general dissatisfaction with the new rates, and that the only customers who were disturbed were those who were using more than a thousand feet per month or less. These customers are less than twenty per cent of our entire number; and of this twenty per cent the circumstances of a majority easily enable them to use sufficient gas to secure a decrease under the new rates.

Among the schedules provided you is one showing the different quantities of gas sold from the directory of customers using less than 1000 cubic feet per month. It would seem that the professions, which include doctors, dentists, lawyers, etc.,—storekeepers and businesses—skilled labor and supervisory labor, would be well off in the amount of gas sold. Of the few who had no use for that amount of gas, could well afford to pay the proper rates for the small amount they consume.

This would also apply to some customers in the other three divisions, so that the net result would be that out of all our customers, but not more than ten per cent of the whole number who might really feel the increase on the smaller consumptions.

It must be borne in mind, however, that thousands of our customers of most limited means are today using much larger amounts of gas, and securing a decrease in the price.

It is most important to keep in mind that a great many consumers earning the same wages and living under substantially the same conditions as the smallest users, are using gas to a much larger amount than the average consumer, and under the new rate schedule are receiving a considerable reduction in their bills.

Experience tends to show that a great many of our customers will take advantage of the new rate by using gas to a larger extent, and to their own greater convenience and benefit than heretofore; and thereby get the full benefit of the reduction in their bills.

We call attention also to the very small amount which the average customer pays per day for the gas company's service.

The average bill on the new rates is $3.21 per month, which means about 11¢ per day.

For this sum of money, gas service is available for two hours of the day, and three hundred and sixty-five days of the year.

The whole family can a longer sleep in the morning because there is no need of getting up early to start a coal fire. In case of sickness, or any other need, a small or large amount of hot water may be had at almost any time. During the summer months there is no need to keep a coal fire going, and in the winter the gas light or stove can be turned on at any moment.

Nothing which the public buys today is obtainable at as comparatively low cost as the service furnished by public utilities.

The consumption of gas by the petitioners in each month, May 1923 to April 1924 inclusive, and also their average consumption for the twelve months, May 1923 to April 1924 inclusive, except in cases where the petitioner has used gas for less than the twelve months, in which case the average appearing at the bottom of the column is schedule A. The average of the figures as shown.

For the month of April 1924, omitting number seven, as the record of consumption was for only half the month, the average consumption was 2365 cubic feet, and for the twelve months, May 1923 to April 1924 inclusive, the average consumption was 2292 cubic feet. The average consumption of the petitioners as a body, for the month of April, and also the year's average, shows a decrease in the price of gas charged to them instead of an increase.

For the month of April, 1924, the bills of petitioners increased, two practically remained the same, and twelve were reduced.

For the twelve months May 1923 to April 1924 inclusive, a full year being the only fair criterion, the bills of fourteen of the petitioners would have increased, and the bills of the new rates have been reduced.

It has always been the policy of this company, as shown by its past record to reduce prices as fast as conditions warrant, and as we realize that the future of the gas business depends upon encouraging a larger use of gas by lower rates, we hope and intend to continue this policy.

"Here's a Loaf like Your Mother Made"

WHEN you stop and think how good your mother's bread used to taste, this looks like a pretty strong statement. But it's true, just the same. You need not take our word for this—in fact, we'd rather you wouldn't. We'd like to have you put Old Home Potato Bread to a test. Try a loaf in your own home. Serve it to your family and see if they don't agree that it really has an old-time, home-made taste.

Mother, herself, thinks Old Home is a mighty fine loaf. And mother is a real judge of bread, too, because she baked her own for so many years. She can discuss the fine points of bread baking with you by the hour. So her opinion carries a lot of weight in these matters.

It pleases us a lot to have such a culinary expert as mother put her stamp of approval on Old Home Potato Bread. She says it's as good as she could make herself—a very flattering opinion. But we'll say this much: if effort counts for anything, Old Home should run mother's own bread a mighty close race, for we certainly have done our best to produce a loaf full of old-fashioned goodness and nourishment. We leave it to you to judge how well we have succeeded.

More Slices — Goes Farther

Here's another thing you'll like about Old Home Potato Bread: it's made in a new shaped loaf—a loaf that is considerably longer than the ordinary style. Naturally this long loaf gives you more slices than the usual loaf, so it goes farther. And these slices are the nicest size for sandwiches, toasting, or any other use. You can effect quite a saving on your bread bill by using this long loaf.

Your grocer has Old Home Potato Bread for you. Include a loaf in your order today. Put it to the test and see if it isn't just as fine as bread can be. You'll find it has that real home-made flavor.

AMUSEMENT NOTES

RIALTO THEATRE
In the cast of Wm. Fox screen version of "The Plunderer," which is now playing at Lowell's Rialto Theatre, there appears a group of performers with enviable records on the stage and before the camera. This fact, combined with an extraordinary story and scene after scene of spectacular perfection, serves to make the picture one of the best shown here this season.

Frank Mayo has the leading role as a hard-hitting, clear-eyed superintendant. Evelyn Brent is the "lily" picture owner of a local dance hall and gambling infirmo with whom the young mine superintendent is in love. Tom Santschi is admirable as the plunderer. A villain, if ever there was one, he is. Others in the cast are John Mason, Peggy Shaw, Edward Phillips and Dan Mason, late of "Bonerville Trolley" fame. All of them have had stage experience and success. Their talents are brought into full play in this picture with romance and action. A scene showing a mine town flooded beneath the waters of a wrecked reservoir is one of the most thrilling a fan would want to see.

But by far the biggest "punch" in the picture is the thrilling fist fight between Mayo and Tom Santschi. Even the historical film part of "The Spoilers" in which Santschi also participated, fades into oblivion compared to this bloodthirsty scrap. If you have any red blood in your veins this fight will make it tingle. It's a great fight—don't miss it.

A special attraction that will excite much local interest is "The White Way" Jazz band, under the direction of John Bradford. The band is composed of all local young men who are preparing a vaudeville act. If you like real modern jazz music, hear this band. They have been engaged for the holiday night (Friday) only.

MERRIMACK SQUARE THEATRE
Final performances will be given this evening at the Merrimack Square theatre of "The Confidence Man," starring Thomas Meighan, and "Drunks of Jeopardy," the famous Harold Lloyd story, with Elaine Hammerstein in the featured role. This program has delighted hundreds since it was first shown Sunday.

John Barrymore, America's most distinguished actor, in "Beau Brummel," history's greatest romantic drama, filmed amid scenes of romantic splendor, is the attraction offered by Merrimack Square for Thursday, Friday and Saturday. It is a 12-reel production.

More than 500 costumes, typifying periods of 1795, 1814 and 1821, were assembled for the filming of this screen drama. The extras used included 300 French soldiers, 500 members of the French nobility, 500 courtiers and ladies of the court, and 60 officers of the Tenth Hussars.

The characterization is one entirely suited to the stage star who caused a revolution as Hamlet on Broadway. The personality of Beau Brummel has captivated the imaginations of men and women by his grandeur and the dramatic rise and fall of his career. During the heyday of his popularity, ward W. Freeman, jeweler, and Frank C. Gilbert, manager of the Thorndike Coal Co., who are members of Arab Patrol, Aleppo Temple.

The Lowell Shriners will be away until June 11 and look forward to the convention as the biggest in point of numbers and the best from the standpoint of enthusiasm, ever held by the order. The trip to and from Boston by the Aleppo Shriners will be made in two special trains.

All formal convention sessions will be presided over by Imperial Potentate late Conrad V. Dykeman, elected last year at Washington. Election of officers this year will make James E. Chandler of Kansas City Imperial potentate, as it is a Shrine custom to advance Imperial officers one position each year.

This custom leaves only one office open for election this year, that of Imperial outer guard, with six men as announced candidates—L. P. Stewart of Washington, D. C.; Allan McCants, Meriden, Miss.; Dana S. Williams, Louisville, Mo.; John N. Seibrell, Jr., Norfolk, Va.; Carl W. Cummins, St. Paul, Minn.; and James E. Chandler.

R. ritual read there. Following, the column will halt at the revolutionary monument on the common for the customary salute. The march will be taken up afterward to town hall, where exercises will be conducted in honor of the solemn day.

The program in the hall will include the presentation of a Memorial day address by Rev. Charles H. Ellis, pastor of Central Baptist church; readings by Mrs. A. C. Perham; selections by the Congregational church quartet and music by Chelmsford band. Women of the American Legion Ladies' auxiliary are to serve dinner for all persons connected with the different veterans' organizations and all aids performing duties in connection with the Memorial day observance.

Chelmsford Veterans association lost one member through death, last year—Corrado Seymour Kneeland, formerly a member of Co. C, First Vermont Cavalry volunteers, who died February 1. There are only six veteran soldiers remaining on the active rolls of the association.

city's schools, was in two sections. The first section was given over to readings and instrumental numbers, featuring several selections by the school orchestra. The orchestra is composed of 16 students and last night's performance was its first public appearance.

The second part of the program consisted of folk songs and dances and was particularly interesting. Songs and dances of Italy, France, Spain, Poland, Scotland, England, Ireland and America were given by talented young pupils of the school in a way that won the hearts of the audience.

CLEANING REED
Clean reed and willow baskets by rubbing with a stiff brush.

ENTERTAINMENT AT THE VARNUM SCHOOL

The assembly hall of the Varnum school was well filled with parents and friends of the students last evening when the opening number of an entertainment for the benefit of the school fund was given. From the very first number to the final curtain, the audience was well pleased with the youngsters' performance and applauded each section of the performance heartily.

The program, given under the direction of Miss Elizabeth Kennedy, principal of the school, with the assistance of the faculty and Miss Gertrude O'Brien, assistant music director of the

WILL CELEBRATE MEMORIAL DAY

Tewksbury citizens, including all members of patriotic organizations and auxiliaries, will celebrate Memorial day with appropriate ceremonies of solemn attractiveness. An effort has been made to have the parade line amply filled.

Lowell Military band will give a concert at 5.30 a. m. exercises at the cemetery at 9.15 a. m. under the auspices of G. A. R. post No. 155, and American Legion post No. 259; services at town hall at 10 a. m.; music by Lowell Military band; soldier, Miss Jessie Whitworth; orator, Hon. Charles P. Howard of Reading.

All veterans of all wars are invited to attend the exercises. Dinners will be served by members of Ladies' Aid society of the Centre church.

MUSIC LECTURE POSTPONED

The lecture which was announced some weeks ago as to have been given at the Normal school today, by Ralph Baldwin of Hartford, Conn., upon "Ideals of Beauty in Music," has been postponed because Mr. Baldwin was unable to come from Hartford at this time. The next lecture at the Normal school will be given a week from today, when Mrs. R. L. Robinson, president of the Massachusetts Public Interest League, will lecture upon the Youth Movement. Mrs. Robinson has paid much attention to the subject of anarchistic propaganda among young people and her lecture should prove of unusual interest.

LAUNDERING CORDUROY

Do not wring or iron corduroy after it is washed. When it is dry brush it with a soft brush.

Once she knows more about kin than geography? Does she know more about men than her mother does? Does she know more about lovers than love? If life in her just a mad whirl of gay parties, midnight motor rides, dances to daylight, there is a play that holds up a mirror to the Young Folly. It's a story of today that's being enacted in every city and town, its characters are people you know. Perhaps yourself. Possibly your daughter. It gambles with cards and reputations. That's "Daughters of Today."

BEHOLD! "DAUGHTERS OF TODAY"

in Negligee! with cigarette and a "night cap" ready! Almost day—but the dance just over. She lingers on with Spicy Stories and Dreams of Youth's Wild Ride with Folly!—and never a thought of Tomorrow's awakening.

B. F. KEITH'S THEATRE

"The Old Fool," which Harry Arner and Netta Packer present at the B. F. Keith theatre this evening, is a comedy story of the race track and a race track tout who accomplished something besides giving tips. He acted and brought results. It has a great human appeal to it. Don't miss the excitement of the races.

ALLIES TO REPLY TO GERMANY

PARIS, May 28.—(By the Associated Press) The allied council of Ambassadors has agreed on the terms of the reply it will make to the note from Germany relative to the resumption of inter-allied control of German armaments, it is announced. The text of the reply will be withheld until the note has been received in Berlin. It is known, however, that it adheres closely to the original decision of the ambassadors that the transformation of the military control commission into a committee on guarantees must be preceded by a general inquiry into the state of Germany's military establishment, with a complete inventory of its resources.

OPPORTUNITY FOR MEDITERRANEAN TRIP

An opportunity very seldom equalled in the U. S. naval service is offered to ex-navy men, according to an announcement from recruiting headquarters in Boston today which follows: "A chance to make a Mediterranean cruise with return home after one year is open to ex-navy men who re-enlist for one of the four destroyers of Division Twenty-six now at the Boston navy yard. These destroyers are the Flusser, Converse, Worden and Billingsley, and will sail for Gibraltar on June 8 to relieve the ships now on duty there. Ratings needed are engineers, bakers, shipfitters, machinists' mates and electrician's mates." Applications for this service should be made at the local recruiting station in the Fairburn building.

Sullivan, D.C.L., and Rev. Fr. Cunningham.

Rev. Joseph Armand Prevost, the only Lowell boy to be ordained Friday, has been assigned to St. Joseph's parish, Kingston.

MATRIMONIAL

At the chapel of the immaculate Conception church at 3 o'clock this afternoon, Mr. Edward W. Gallagher, formerly assistant secretary of the chamber of commerce, and at present secretary of the New England Retail Clerks' Association, and Miss Bernice A. Moody, manager of the Ruchard studio, were united in the bonds of wedlock by Rev. John C. Duffy, O.M.I., in the presence of the families of the contracting parties. Miss Louise Parks of Bristol, Conn., was bridesmaid, and Mr. Paul E. Gallagher, brother of the bridegroom, acted as best man.

The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Oscar L. Moody and a popular young lady well known in business circles throughout the city. She wore a beautiful gown of brown Elizabeth crepe with hat to match and a corsage bouquet of panicles and orchids. The bridesmaid wore a gown of poudre blue canton crepe with hat to match and carried an old-fashioned bouquet. The happy couple left immediately after the ceremony on an extended honeymoon tour to include the Mohawk trail and a visit to New York city. Upon their return they will make their home at 23 Lawrence street, Malden where they will be at home to their friends after July 1.

REV. SHIELDS SPEAKER AT EDUCATIONAL CLUB

Rev. Lewis E. Shields, pastor of the First Presbyterian church, was the speaker before the Educational club at its regular meeting held in Kitten hall, yesterday afternoon.

Previous to the address, a short business session was held with President Mrs. Elizabeth D. Legat in the chair. It was announced that the final meeting of the season would be held next Tuesday, at which time the election of officers will be held.

Rev. Mr. Shields spoke in part as follows:

"We have entered upon a week in which comes the day known as Memorial day, originated for the purpose of honoring our soldier dead. It will be a sad day when we forget to remember those who gave their lives that we might enjoy the privileges we do today."

"My purpose today is to invite you to consider the sentiment now so prevalent, the anti-war sentiment. You all remember when President Harding, standing beside the tomb of the Unknown Dead, said, 'It must not be again.' And all men today are feeling more strongly than ever that it must not be again. The men who say this today are not unpatriotic, they are not afraid to die, they are men who have looked the fact in the face and have become convinced of the futility of war."

The speaker then read various items from papers in reference to "no more war."

He also explained the various reasons why wars are often futile. "The results of the World war have not justified themselves in young manhood. Indulgences against the World war include its material cost that must be paid by millions yet unborn. It has interfered with the moral economic relations of nations. It has retarded the constant battle against disease. It has left the mark of the moral loss born of the hatred instilled by war. But more than anything else, it has failed to make the world safer for democracy."

LOWELL RENEEL CLUB

Slim attendance of members at a scheduled business meeting of Lowell Reneel club, in Odd Fellows building in Middlesex street, last evening, called for postponement of business until a later date to be announced.

FIRE BREAKS OUT IN MONGEAU BUILDING

Fire of unknown origin broke out last evening in an unoccupied room on the third floor of the Mongeau building and threatened for a few moments to become a serious blaze. Firemen summoned by an alarm from box 14 at 8.40 o'clock brought the blaze under control, however after a ten-minute battle. Damage was limited to the room in which the fire originated.

THE LAST CALL FOR CAMP DEVENS

Last call to the young men of New England who desire to attend the 1924 citizens' military training camp at Camp Devens, August 1 to 31, next, was issued today by Pierpont L. Stackpole, civilian aide to the secretary of war, from Military Training Camps' association headquarters in Boston.

Already nearly 2500 applicants have been enrolled and from the steady stream of filled blankets arriving at headquarters, it appears that the full quota of 3000 will be enrolled within the next week or two at the latest.

Army officers interested in the present recruiting campaign, fully believe that the application lists will be filled to overflowing and that numerous youths will be sorry they did not send in their blanks earlier in the season.

The young men between the ages of 17 and 24, contemplating taking advantage of this training, are urged by Civilian Aide Stackpole to lose no time in procuring applications from the local representatives of the association, or from Boston headquarters, Room 214, 54 State street.

GIANT WREATH OF SCARLET POPPIES WOVEN TO HALLOW THE UNKNOWN SOLDIER'S TOMB AT ARLINGTON

A giant poppy wreath, the national tribute of the Veterans of Foreign Wars, will be laid on the tomb of the unknown American soldier in the National cemetery at Arlington on Memorial day as a special feature of the poppy day program of the V. F. W. observed in connection with its annual poppy sale.

reverence, Mrs. Charles Berger of Pittsburgh whose son, Elmer M. Berger of the 11th Infantry, gave his life in France, and Mrs. Lydia Regelman of the same city, whose son, Hall, a member of the same regiment, was also killed in action.

All the poppies used in the official observance of poppy day are "Buddy Poppies," made by disabled American ex-service men in a specially equipped V. F. W. poppy factory in Pittsburgh, Pa. The date more than 3,000,000 poppies have been completed, each bearing the label, "Wear a Buddy Poppy," and the entire proceeds from their sale will be devoted to relief of war-disabled.

All the men employed in the poppy factory are men suffering from wartime disabilities, who cannot be rehabilitated by the Veterans bureau because their disability was not contemplated by the War Risk and Vocational Training laws when passed and who are designated by the government as "nonfeasible." The poppy making not only affords these war veterans a livelihood, which the majority of them because of their crippled condition, would be helpless to earn in their former occupations, but in addition helps to restore their self confidence and rebuild their morale.

President Coolidge, who has signified his warm accord with the V. F. W. poppy day plan, himself wears the first Buddy Poppy, a specially made blossom in whose making every disabled boy in the factory had a hand.

Professional organizations and representative trades associations covering practically every branch of the country's professional and industrial life have signified their cordial official endorsement of the movement by formal resolutions and letters to Brigadier General Lloyd M. Brett, commander in chief of the Veterans of Foreign Wars, and prominent individuals, and the outstanding national women's patriotic organizations have also strongly commended it.

At the same time that the mammoth wreath of scarlet memorial blossoms is laid on the tomb of the American Unknown soldier, a duplicate will be laid by the Veterans of Foreign Wars on the Soldiers and Sailors' monument in New York, and thousands of smaller similar wreaths will be laid on memorial monuments throughout the country during the Memorial day services by the various local V. F. W. posts. In still further significance of tribute to the World War dead on Memorial day in Paris a second giant replica of the Arlington wreath will be laid on the tomb of the Unknown French soldier at the Arc de Triomphe in accordance with a custom annually observed since the war by the Veterans of Foreign Wars. "With their poppies in their helmets the front lines hold the line," wrote John Mills Hinson, and to the boys who were "over there" no other flower could be more symbolic of our honored heroes.

At last there is a simple new way to banish perspiration odors easily and quickly—without dangerous chemicals. The purest and finest of toilet soaps has been combined with a medicinal extract which has the marvelous power of dissolving, removing and preventing all perspiration and body odors instantly.

A single washing prevents odors for at least 36 hours no matter how much one may exercise or dance. In fact, in 90% of the cases, including Marathon Dancers and Tennis players, it was found that there was no body odor after hours of strenuous exertion. And it leaves no odor of its own. Cuticura removes the cause. Does not injure or stain clothing. And is so beneficial to skin that physicians recommend it to keep babies clean and sweet.

COOLIDGE "THE PLATFORM"

What the republican party needs is a platform for the coming campaign and this is the very thing most difficult to obtain in view of the long list of failures scored by the party as a whole. Four years ago, the republican national committee advertised for ideas for a platform that would catch votes, somewhat after the manner in which the sticky paper catches flies and with analogous result. The record of the party in congress is certainly not such as would draw support from the masses who have suffered from dull business or from any other class—not even the beneficiaries of the republican tariff.

The Boston Herald apropos of the dispute over the platform for the Cleveland convention suggests a platform of ten words as follows:

"Our candidate is our platform. To say more is unnecessary."

That is what stirs the resentment of such men as Senator Lodge and others who for years have been prominent in shaping the destinies of the party and who feel in a measure responsible for the fulfillment of its pledges to the service men and the people in general. Being comparatively a newcomer in the higher councils of the party and considering only the conditions confronting him as affecting his own candidacy, the president naturally follows certain policies in many respects at variance with those of the time honored leaders of the party. This has been accentuated by the fight over the bonus and the tax reduction measures and perhaps one or two others.

It has become glaringly apparent that the president has set out to be not only the party candidate, but in his individual policies to be better than his party and therefore, also its only platform. The other leaders naturally resent this assumption of dictatorial power within the party. That policy met a rebuff on the bonus and it will meet others equally severe if not speedily reversed. The disintegration of the party goes steadily on, and it remains to be seen whether the Cleveland convention will close up its broken ranks and put it in trim for the coming battle.

TAX CUT AND THE BONUS

There is a great howl among republicans against Senator Lodge for having voted for the soldiers' bonus, although the parties who are conducting that campaign would have had a lot of explaining to do, had congress failed to pass the bonus over the president's veto. The bonus had been promised by the party leaders and for those promises Senator Lodge felt responsible, but undoubtedly the president felt otherwise. He was guided by the advice of Secretary Mellon on the taxation issue; but now that the bill has been passed, he finds that Mellon's counsel during the fight was misleading, inasmuch as an actuary shows that the secretary's statements were incorrect and that the present bill will not only not bring a deficit as alleged, but will actually take care of the bonus payment in 1925 in addition to making a 25 percent reduction on the income taxes for 1923.

Thus it is quite probable that the president will sign the tax bill as submitted. He has already found ample reason for reversing the stand he took when he said he would not sign any tax reduction bill that differed materially from that offered by Secretary Mellon. The fact is, that the secretary's bill was one-sided, sectional and designed to benefit only a particular class.

Judging from the unanimity with which the tax bill was passed by both branches of congress, it is very evident that should it be vetoed by the president it will be passed over the veto quite as promptly as was the bonus bill. It was adopted in the house by a vote of 375 to 9 and in the senate by 60 to 6. Thus 435 members have voted for the bill, while only 15 have opposed it. It is not likely that any considerable number of those who voted for the bill would support the presidential veto. It is, therefore, practically certain that the tax bill will become law in its present form. Rep. Greene, republican, assured the house on the authority of a treasury actuary that the bill would bring a sufficient surplus for the year 1924 to pay the bonus twice over and that the figures for 1925 would show a surplus of $138,500,000, exclusive of the bonus which can be taken care of out of the previous surplus. That statement rather discredits the various views put forward on the authority of Secretary Mellon.

THE CLOTH TARIFF PROBLEM

Conditions relating to the dumping of English cotton goods in this country have already been brought to the attention of the tariff commission at Washington by the N. W. Bedford Textile Workers' association, by the formal filing of an application for an increase in duties on imported cotton cloth. This application has been referred in the usual way to the advisory board of the commission, which has it under consideration at the present time.

Will the unusual emergency that is seriously affecting the normal operation of our cotton textile mills bring an early decision? Little can be said upon that point just now, for we are told that the "usual procedure" requires six months or more. Furthermore, it is indicated that the tariff commission advisory board will not act until the manufacturers' application is received and duly recognized.

On motion of Senator Walsh, the investigation has already been started, but if the usual course be followed an early decision cannot be expected.

Although the flexible tariff, so-called, has been on the statute books for a year and a half, only one executive order changing duties has been issued. That was in the case of wheat and flour, an investigation being practically rushed through in four or five months because of the political considerations involved.

The commission ordered a considerable number of investigations in March, 1923, but in only one case—that of sodium nitrate, as a sop to the "farmers vote"—has a final report gone to the White House. Hearings have been concluded in other cases, but contravened within the tariff commission have delayed action indefinitely.

Under ordinary procedures, an investigation is ordered and field workers are then sent to factories to ascertain production costs. Public hearings

A Thought

Let us be merciful as well as just.—Longfellow.

Still Believed It

"You used to say you thought heaven sent me to you," said the young wife, teasingly, during their first quarrel. "And I say so still," "Really?" she exclaimed, delighted. "Yes," he added, coldly, "as a punishment."

What an Excuse!

As soon as she heard her husband insert his key in the door she rushed out into the hall to meet him. "Mary gave me notice this morning," she said. "She told me that you had spoken to her most rudely over the telephone. Good heavens, my dear," answered the husband, "I thought I was speaking to you!"

Scientific Research

Two students were waiting to see a bachelor professor, who said word he would give them an interview as soon as he found his glasses. "The professor is very methodical," said one. "How so?" "I have been here before when he was hunting for his glasses. He starts with the parlor and comes every room back by back. And as he finishes combing the room he looks it." "What's what you call scientific research?"

Youthful Mechanisms

"It's surprising," said Bill Henry of the Auto club, "how many people are still ignorant concerning motor vehicles, and this applies to those who drive them as well as to the few pedestrians left among us. Only a day or so ago I heard a woman living across a block away from me call out: 'What's the delay, why don't we start?' 'Pa says one of the cylinders is missing,' piped up her small son, to which his mother replied: 'Well, you children get to work and help him find it or we'll never see old Santa Barbara today.'—Los Angeles Times.

Why He Selected Me

The man walked into a sign painting establishment and asked: "Can you fix up a sort of placard or house motto for me?" "Certainly," said the painter. "Put a border around it and beautify it a little." "We can do that," said the grocer, who assumed him to be as pretty as you like. "What is the wording to be?" "It's a quotation from Shakespeare. You remember Puck says: 'I'll put a girdle around the earth in 40 minutes.' Seeing that the sign painter looked puzzled, he added: "I want it as a gentle reminder to place on my wife's dressing table."—Louisville Courier-Journal.

Hoping For the Best

"Germany as a country, the Germans as a people, are essentially all right," said Senator Lodge. "It was the government and the military mechanism of the government that were wrong and which the world fought and destroyed. It left Germany sick, very sick, indeed, but she will be all right before long. The situation in Germany reminds me of little Dorothy. Her sister was ill and a quarantine sign was put on the house. Dorothy, at the end of a week, a friend of the family asked her whether she liked her new home, to which Dorothy replied: 'Oh, yes, I like it, but I'll be glad when our own house gets well.'—Richmond Sunday Herald.

The Meeting of the Waters

There is not in the wide world a valley so gay, As that vale in whose bosom the bright waters meet! Oh! the last rays of feeling and life must depart Ere the bloom of that valley shall fade from my heart.

Yet It Was Not that Nature Had Shed

Her purple or crystal and blindest of flowers, 'Twas not the soft magic of streamlet or hill, 'Twas not it was something more exquisite still.

'Twas that Friends, the beloved of my lives were near, Who made every dear scene of enchantment more dear, And who felt how the best charms of nature imparted to place on my looks that we love.

Sweet vale of Avoval, how calm could I rest In thy bosom of shade with the friends I love best, Where the storm that we feel in this cold world should cease And our hearts, like thy waters, be mingled in peace.

MAN ABOUT TOWN

Mauro Rapone, a barber friend of mine, feels rather happy this month. In May comes the birthday of himself, his wife, his daughter and his son. Besides being a clever (longhair) artist, Mr. Rapone has entered the musical composition field, and is the author of several songs and marches.

At the commencement exercises of Colgate university, Hamilton, N. Y., on June 14, Donald Ferdinand Perron of 18th street, this city, will be numbered among the graduates. The list of speakers at the Colgate commencement are worth notice here. They will be Hiram Percy Maxon of Hartford, Conn., inventor of the Marconi Radio-Telegraph, Rensselaer Washburn Child, formerly Ambassador Extraordinary and Plenipotentiary to Italy and official observer for the United States at the Council of the League of Nations, and George Hatter (Cotton), Ch. E. 109, L. E. 1, president of Colgate.

Traffic Officer Daniel Brennan has returned to his post of duty after a two weeks' vacation. Traffic men were the first to get back to work after being off this year, but Dan does not revel in the distinction. Out of his 14 days leave of absence it rained nine or ten, and the remaining days were nothing to brag about atmospherically. Dan blames Acting Supervisor Eddie Connors for his ill luck. When the men are drawing for vacations, Dan could not be present, so he requested Eddie to draw for him. Eddie drew the two weeks just past and Dan considers that he was "out of luck."

Out of patriotic respect to the country's heroic dead, all flags should be raised for Memorial day. Looking out from the fourth story of The Sun building today, the only flag discernible was that on the new high school building. It is perhaps the only building in the city where Old Glory waves continuously.

Parishioners of St. Michael's church were allowed to hear of the passing of Miss Lucy Sheridan, for 21 years housekeeper for the priest of the parish. Those who knew her, and practically every parishioner did, will remember her as a woman of high ideals and deep piety. Rev. John H. Healey, O.P.M.C., director of the mission in that parish last week, paid her a high tribute when he said she was a "mother" to the priests, and a woman whose place will not readily be filled.

LOWELL BOY CHOSEN TO LEAD ORCHESTRA

Mr. Kenneth Austin Corlew, of Brown university, class of '26, and younger son of Mrs. Rufus E. Corlew, this city, has just received the unanimous election to the leadership of the Brown university orchestra, recognized as the best undergraduate orchestra in the country. His brother, Rufus E., plays trombone in the same organization. He is 15 years of age and as a boy had frequently to conduct the Middlesex County Training School band when his late father, Rufus E. Corlew, was superintendent of that institution.

NO SCHOOLHOUSE FOR FORGE VILLAGE

Westford citizens, in town meeting assembled Monday evening, following a proposition calling for the borrowing of $35,000 for the construction of a schoolhouse at Forge Village, and vote was 123 to 120, it requires a two-thirds ballot to allow the town to borrow money outside its debt limit.

The voters declared in favor of including the names of veterans of all wars on the $6000 soldiers' memorial, to be erected on or near the town common.

Westford band concerts, always a great attraction in the summer months and the rallying point for thousands of automobilists and residents from surrounding hamlets, will be conducted no longer. FAREWELL TO NANCY

Ae fond kiss and then we sever!
Ae farewell, and then for ever!
Deep in heart-wrung tears I'll pledge thee;
Warring sighs and groans I'll wage thee.
Who shall say that Fortune grieves him,
While the star of hope she leaves him?
Me, nae cheerful twinkle lights me;
Dark despair around benights me.

I'll ne'er blame my partial fancy—
Naething could resist my Nancy;
But to see her was to love her,
Love but her and love for ever.
Had we never loved sae kindly,
Had we never loved sae blindly,
Never met—or never parted,
We had ne'er been broken-hearted.

Fare thee weel, thou first and fairest!
Fare thee weel, thou best and dearest!
Thine be ilka joy and treasure,
Peace, enjoyment, love, and pleasure!

Ae fond kiss, and then we sever!
Ae farewell, alas for ever!
Deep in heart-wrung tears I'll pledge thee;
Warring sighs and groans I'll wage thee.

—Robert Burns.

The TURN-OVER

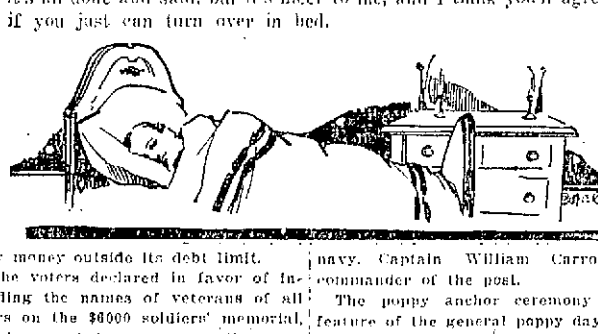

It may be right nice to wake up in the morn just after your slumber's been deep, but the niceness about it, as sure as you're born, is to wake—and then fall back to sleep.

A beautiful sight is the break of dawn and a thriller to all folks, it seems. But the thrill is much nicer if you can just yawn, and shortly fall back into dreams.

It may be the twitter of birds, understand, or the morning noise out on the street that wakes you, but honestly, isn't it grand to snuggle back under the sheet?

There's something that's fine in the early morn stretch and, though you may know you should rise, it's greater if you can just lazily catch a little more rest for your eyes.

It's nice to fling up, and it's nice to get out in the air, when it's all done and said, but it's nicer to me, and I think you'll agree, if you just can turn over in bed.

GIVEN BIG RECEPTION

Two Lowell Girls Appear in Support of Fine Program at Providence

Two young local musicians just entering the concert field were given a splendid reception Sunday evening in Providence, R. I., where they appeared in support of a fine program given by Emmett O'Toole, eminent Irish tenor of New York. The artists were Miss Marie J. C. O'Donnell, organist at St. Anthony's church here, and Miss Kathleen Jennings of So. Whipple st.

The program featured songs of Ireland and provided one of the most pleasing entertainments given in the Rhode Island capital during the current concert season. "Girls" were pleased with the offerings of the Lowell young women and were loud-spoken in their praise. Miss Jennings is possessed of a robust voice of excellent range and a personality that at once ingratiates her with her audience. Her enunciation was clear and the catchy, lilting numbers which she offered were enjoyed time and again. She is endowed with a richness of voice tone and a marvelous range that leave no doubt in the minds of her auditors but that she will some day prove one of the most noted of our concert favorites.

In the playing of Miss O'Donnell, who acted as accompanist for Miss Jennings in all of her numbers and for Mr. Moore in some of his numbers, there was manifested the faultless basic training given by her renowned tutor, Vincent O'Brien of Dublin. Miss O'Donnell played flawlessly with a sympathy and depth of understanding that made her offerings all the more meritorious. Her sweet unassuming grace and stately poise, added to her clever playing, won her at once the esteem and admiration of all who were privileged to hear her.

Both of the artists from Lowell were cordially received and would be welcomed to Providence by music lovers at any time they elect to return. The excellent support which they gave made the Emmett O'Toole program one that will long be cherished in the memory of the lovers of Irish music in the Rhode Island metropolis.

Among the offerings by Miss Jennings which made an exceptional appeal were "Bird's Lark," "Hiss Song," "Thy Young Days Shaded," "Sweet Little Maid," and "In Butterfield Time," as well as "Oro Mio Ben," "Ave Maria" and "Lullaby Angelina."

North American Operators Show Lack of Interest in Attempt to Establish Wireless with South America

BUENOS AIRES, May 28.—Attempts to establish wireless communication between amateurs of both Americas, have not met with all the desired success, due to the lack of interest shown by the operators in the United States and Canada, according to the Revista Radiotelegrafica. It says this is shown by the fact that many North Americans are heard here in communication with each other, but that few address South American stations.

M. E. CONFERENCE IS DRAWING TO CLOSE

SPRINGFIELD, May 28.—The Methodist Episcopal quadrennial conference will draw toward a close today. Adjournment has been set for tomorrow noon at the latest and if business is done rapidly today, the delegates may end their four weeks' labors tonight.

Confirming yesterday a modification of the "amusement ban" and the assignment of bishops for the coming quadrennium, the delegates have now completed the most pressing matters of the conference. A report of the judiciary committee denying the constitutionality of limiting the life tenure of the bishops will be presented today. It is expected to meet with little opposition, although a minority report of an opposite opinion will be presented with it. A report on industrial relations, recommended by the committee on the state of the church, also remains to be considered. Many delegates left the city last night, and the exodus will continue through today and tomorrow.

Braves Win Double Header — Giants Increase Lead as Pirates Defeat Cubs

Carpentier Says He is Heavier and Better Than When He Fought Dempsey

By JOE WILLIAMS
MICHIGAN CITY, Ind., May 27.—The Georges Carpentier who is here to fight Tommy Gibbons, best of the American light heavyweights, is well conditioned, finely trained, and to all outer appearances, ready for the struggle of his young aristocratic existence.

I watched him do his regular stuff today against a miscellaneous assortment of sparring partners that included the veteran featherweight, Charley Ledoux, and Paul Fritch, lightweight champion of Europe.

Carpentier has filled out noticeably in the region of the chest and shoulders and is generally more robust in appearance.

"You are heavier than when you fought Dempsey," I suggested as he lay on the rubber's table in his dressing room after the workout.

"And better," he added, with a ring of confidence that in no wise suggested arrogance.

It is evident that Carpentier's successive defeats at the hands of Dempsey and Siki have not curbed his innate optimism. He admits frankly now that he isn't in Dempsey's class.

Don't Ask Them About Mone Siki
The Siki debacle is something that is not discussed at any great length either by the Frenchman or his volatile manager, Desamps.

You ask, "What about this Siki guy?" and Carpentier and Desamps shrug their shoulders in unison and answer, "Oh, that buffoon."

Your sense of discretion, if any, persuades you to drop the subject. You make mental note, however, that all traces of the cruel punishment which the black man administered to the "rich kid of France" have disappeared, and that he is still the handsome bimbo who knocked the American "100" dizzy three years ago.

But that is an incidental matter. Is Carpentier really as good as he looks in training, is he better than when he fought Dempsey, as he says?

Well, it's a cinch he isn't any better.

GEORGES CARPENTIER

ter. You don't get better in the fight same after you reach 30 years of age, and the weight you take on this late in life is not the kind of weight that does you any good in the ring.

Carpentier May Be Just a Shell
Carpentier undoubtedly takes the

TOMMY GIBBONS

Gibbons fight seriously and has trained conscientiously. This probably explains why he looks so well outwardly.

But what about the condition of his interior? Jeffries looked great physically at Reno 14 years ago, but the first punch Johnson landed to the stomach showed that the boiler maker was little more than a shell. Kilbane trained hardest and looked best for his fight with Ciriqi and was knocked out.

A trim, well-muscled body is not always a positive indication of physical perfection.

Carpentier likes his wine, his cigarets and his moments of nocturnal gaiety.

This kind of a life cuts deeply into a man's stamina and vitality, and there is nothing about the apparent, by well conditioned Frenchman to indicate that he is an exception.

Giants Idle by Rain Increase Lead When Pirates Defeat Cubs in 10-Inning Battle—Pitcher Cole Wins Hi First Game of Season for Detroit

NEW YORK, May 28.—The Giants made a game further ahead of the close trailing Cubs today. They owe it partly to the weather, because rain kept them idle yesterday, while the Chicago National outfit was getting trimmed by the Pirates in a 16-inning battle, 5 to 4. Chicago tied the score in the ninth with a two-run rally, off Kremer. He retired in favor of Morrison, who blanked the Cubs for the remaining one and two-thirds innings.

The league-trailing Phillies sank still lower, when Boston captured both sides of a double-header, 5 to 4, and 19 to 6. In the first game the Phillies made a desperate stab at victory in the eighth, with three runs, a walk, which tied the score. The ninth was blank on both sides, but Boston succeeded in the winning run in the tenth with two out. In the second game, the Braves held the lead throughout, Gibson, substituting for

Melhus at first, starred at bat and immediately three Chicago twirlers, an Cincinnati and St. Louis split a double-header, the Reds losing the first 4 to 3, and winning the second, 3 to 2. ROSSI TO BOX MURPHY M'LEOD'S 72 BEST CARD

Welshman Signed to Replace Paluso in Moody Club Main Event

After burning up the wires since hearing yesterday of Lew Paluso's withdrawal from his bout with Billy Murphy scheduled for tomorrow night, Matchmaker Dodge of the Moody club got in touch with Billy Ames, noted English manager and promoter now in America with a stable of boxers, and succeeded in getting Frankie Rossi, from Wales, to agree to terms.

Hence fight fans will have an opportunity to enjoy their favorite sport tomorrow night, with Murphy and Rossi in the main event scheduled for ten rounds. Rossi has been in this country but a short time, but according to word from the Moody club he is a regular fighter and has divisions over Mickey Landers and Romeo Roach to his credit.

Ames, manager of Rossi, is one of the most celebrated managers in the world, a man who is known to handle only the best. In his stable now in this country in addition to Rossi are Frank Moody, sensational middleweight, Ted Merchant, Britain's best lightweight who knocked out George K. O. Chancey, and Pat McAdam, hard-hitting champion of Scotland. Ames informed the local matchmaker that Rossi is in the class with the others, being considered the best featherweight developed in Wales in recent years.

The other numbers on the card are intact. Benny Nelson of Lowell will meet Battling Leonard of Chelsea in the semi-final of eight rounds. Tommy Leonard, promising local boy, will meet "Irish" Dan Mahoney of Cambridge in an preliminary. In the other six-rounder Bud Taylor of Lawrence will meet Tommy Dunne of South Boston.

HAGEN WILL TRAIN
Walter Hagen is going to make a determined effort to win the open championship of America this summer. The event will be held over the Oakland Hills course in the Detroit district, and Hagen plans to spend three weeks there practicing.

Worcester, May 28 (by the Associated Press).—The field of eastern golf stars seeking places in the selected list that will battle at Detroit next week for the 1924 national open golf championship, swung their war clubs in the final 15 holes of the 36-hole sectional qualifying test over the links of the Worcester Country club.

From today's ranks the 41 leaders, together with last place ties, will step forth to match nibblies in the 72-hole championship test with a similarly selected western contingent of 35 qualifiers and ties. At Detroit, Bobby Jones, youthful Atlanta amateur, who has stood on the side lines during the preliminaries, will defend his open title against the packed galaxy.

Setting the pace in the final qualifying drive here was Freddie McLeod, veteran Washington (D. C.) professional holder of the open championship in 1908, who led a field of 160 yesterday with 72 on a par over this difficult course, which, aided by showers and a half mile, served to practically wreck the chances of a majority of aspirants.

McLeod's lead, however, was slim, for Johnny Farrell, young home bred star of the Quaker Ridge club, Tuckahoe, N. Y., was on the veteran's heels with 73, while four others were knotted at 74, with a total of 44 contenders under 80. Today's fight was considered to rest in the efforts of this army to reach the attempts of those at 80 or above, to rally and break into lower figures.

GAME FORFEITED TO THE CENTRALVILLES
The Centralvilles of the Lowell Twilight League appeared on the common last night for their scheduled game with the V.M.C.A., but the latter failed to show up and the game was forfeited to the Centralvilles by the usual 9 to 0 score.

The game will start at 6:15 sharp with Orrie Allen umpiring behind the bat and Buster Gartin on the bases. Both teams are very fast and capable of putting up a neat brand of ball for the appreciation of the fans.

The new uniforms for the players of Mark's Americans, supplied by John Peters, proprietor of Mark's restaurant, arrived last night and will be put into use the next time the Americans play. The uniforms are a snappy number.

ANNUAL MARATHON MEMORIAL DAY

This youngster is having a great year and his work is being commented upon favorably by City Twilight League fans. He will wear a new uniform.

Manager Bell will select his team from the following Belmont players: Carr, Krause, Jucker, Carl, Willard, Atkinson, Harwood, Michael, Murphy, Dally, Dick, Gagnon, Redway, Lawless, Quillite and Tarpman. Tracks will leave Lincoln park at 1:30 sharp and a large delegation of rally rovers will accompany the team to Boston.

SEVERE BLOW FOR LOWELL HIGH TEAM

Lowell High's baseball team is forced to swallow a bitter pill with the announcement that Billy Gibson, premier twirler, will be out of the game for the remainder of the season because of a fractured ankle. The injury occurred as Gibby was playing right field in the game against Nashua high last Monday.

The lineup leaves the locals to face on the season with only Lefty Cohen to rely on. This loss is unfortunate, however, are counting on him to deliver the goods in the remaining games of the schedule.

JOHNNY DUNDEE MEETS LUIS VICENTINI

NEW YORK, May 28.—Johnny Dundee meets Luis Vicentini, champion of the South American featherweight class, tonight at the Madison Square Garden. The fight will be a ten-round affair. According to some dopesters, this is just as well, although Dundee enters the ring the favorite. The Chilean has had five contests since coming to this country, and has won four, three of them by knockouts. The fifth he lost to Johnny Shugrue on points. Both men are said to be under weight for the bout. The articles stipulate 135 pounds.

LUCK PLAYS BIG PART IN GOLF, SAYS WILLIAMS

By JOE WILLIAMS
Few golfers ever reach the purple heights without an encouraging smile from the gods of luck. Not that golf is a game where luck always decides the important issues but it often seems that sheer skill is not quite enough.

No one played better golf than Max Marston in the national amateur at Pleasanton last summer, no one was more deserving of victory, and yet it is doubtful if the Philadelphia would have won if the "breaks" hadn't been in his favor.

The breaks fell Marston's way at a critical moment when defeat and disaster, like twin horrors, loomed an arm's length away.

It was in the semi-finals. Francis Outmet of Boston was his opponent. Outmet had been a champion of the sixteenth hole in the morning. Later he found himself and gained steadily. At the twelfth hole in the afternoon he had squared the match.

The thirteenth at Pleasanton is a one-shot hole to a cupped green, completely trapped. Outmet drove the honor ball. It came down like a punched egg not more than 15 inches from the pin. Almost a hole in one. Marston hit his shot too robustly.

The green was fringed with spectators. The ball struck one of them and dropped on the green. If the ball hadn't hit a spectator it would have gone on into a trap, out of which Marston would have had to play a safety shot.

As matters stood he was still on the green, though 4 feet from the hole. That lucky break was a stimulant. Marston proceeded to shoot the gallery by sinking the long putt for a birdie two.

The effect the lucky break, plus the successful putt, had on Outmet is hard to describe.

As Marston's ball dropped into the cup Outmet winced as if an unseen hand had tapped him on the chin. That the effect was not wholly imaginary was shown a second later when Outmet, unnerved, missed his putt.

Imagine Outmet, greatest of amateur putters, missing an 18-inch putt! Marston won the next hole, too, and was never headed.

DOUBLE-HEADER AT CLEVELAND
CLEVELAND, O., May 28.—The first of the Cleveland Indians' 14 postponed games is scheduled for today. The Indians and White Sox will meet in a double-header, the extra contest being one postponed here May 3.

MOODY CLUB—Boxing

THURSDAY—CENTRE HALL
10 Rounds
BILLY MURPHY vs.
FRANKIE ROSSI
of Wales

SPORTS OF ALL SORTS

The Lisbon club athletic committee, John Souza, chairman, is receiving congratulations on all sides for its success in reviving interest in amateur boxing.

The Lisbon have conducted three amateur tournaments this season, all of which scored successfully. Some of the best talent in New England was brought here to perform and all shows were conducted and run off with systematic despatch.

The last tournament provided a most entertaining local innovation—the presentation of a heavyweight class. Four men, including the holder of the New England title, competed, and their bouts were real hand-to-handers. Champion Rocky Snow was rocked and rocked by Jack Johnson of Quincy for three rounds with the latter getting the award. Johnson then made his evening perfect by defeating Debbies in the finals. Johnson's victory over Snow gave him great satisfaction. The pair have been rivals for several years. Previous to the local bout they had fought twice, Snow scoring two knockouts and winning two decisions. Hence the colored boy had good reason to show his ivory in recognition of the award of the judges.

Gus Anderson again won the honors in the 115-pound class. This lucky youngster created a sensation at the second Lisbon show when he won over Red O'Grady. He continued his good work Monday night, landing the finals in his class after a turbulent battle with Billy Wallace. This bout was the last number of the evening and it proved a real main event battle.

Joe Perry of Lowell, who defeated Billy Chester, also of Lowell, in the 115-pound class, looks like a coming star. He's fast, crafty and his well. He ought to be heard from later.

Young Polish of Lowell, who landed the "kick" in the 105-pound class, is an aggressive, courageous battler, who carries the battle to his opponent and keeps pumping punches like a machine. He met stiff opposition but succeeded in eliminating all in his class.

In the "human virolo class," Ben Keaveny of Lawrence carried off the honors, when Lowell's champion, Barney Horan, defaulted. The winning contest between these two noted artists attracted quite a few to the stands, but Lowell's entry, Mr. Horan, failed to show, and hence the Followers of the professional mitt-men are keenly disappointed over the cancellation of the Murphy-Paluso bout, scheduled for tomorrow night. Paluso, according to word from his manager, Leo Flynn, has a bad cold, hence his withdrawal. But fans may take some consolation in the knowledge that Paluso's contract is locked up in the Moody club safe and that he cannot fight again in Massachusetts until he fulfills his obligations to Lowell. Frankie Rossi of Wales has been secured to replace Paluso and hence the bouts will go on.

NEW YORK, May 28.—The Giants made a game further ahead of the close trailing Cubs today. They owe it partly to the weather, because rain kept them idle yesterday, while the Chicago National outfit was getting trimmed by the Pirates in a 16-inning battle, 5 to 4. Chicago tied the score in the ninth with a two-run rally, off Kremer. He retired in favor of Morrison, who blanked the Cubs for the remaining one and two-thirds innings.

The league-trailing Phillies sank still lower, when Boston captured both sides of a double-header, 5 to 4, and 19 to 6. In the first game the Phillies made a desperate stab at victory in the eighth, with three runs, a walk, which tied the score. Brooklyn was idle with the Giants in New York, while in the American rain kept the Yankees and Senators and the Red Sox and Athletics in their quarters.

NEW YORK, May 28.—The Giants made a game further ahead of the close trailing Cubs today. They owe it partly to the weather, because rain kept them idle yesterday, while the Chicago National outfit was getting trimmed by the Pirates in a 16-inning battle, 5 to 4. Chicago tied the score in the ninth with a two-run rally, off Kremer. He retired in favor of Morrison, who blanked the Cubs for the remaining one and two-thirds innings.

The league-trailing Phillies sank still lower, when Boston captured both sides of a double-header, 5 to 4, and 19 to 6. In the first game the Phillies made a desperate stab at victory in the eighth, with three runs, a walk, which tied the score. The ninth was blank on both sides, but Boston succeeded in the winning run in the tenth with two out. In the second game, the Braves held the lead throughout, Gibson, substituting for

AMATEUR IS DEFENDER TO REPRESENT U. S. IN RIFLE COMPETITION

FOR THE fourth time in the history of the event an amateur will be the defending champion in the open golf jubilee at Detroit next month. Francis Oulmet was the first amateur to win the American open. The Boston boy won in 1913 after a playoff with Vardon and Ray, noted Englishers, who had tied with the caddy graduate the day before with 304.

Oulmet shot a brilliant 72 to win, easily outstriking his more mature opponents, Vardon with a 77 and Ray with a 78. As the defending champion the following year Oulmet was fourth with 235, and second among the amateurs, Chick Evans finishing with 231, a stroke behind Hagen, the winner.

The second amateur to win the open was Jerry Travers who came through in 1916, winning by a stroke from Tom McNamara. The Upper Mountclair player was only casually interested in the defense of his title and it moved over to another amateur, Chick Evans of Chicago.

Evans made history in that event with four rounds of 70, 65, 74 and 75, for a total of 284, the lowest figure by which the open championship has been won in America. There were no championships during the war years and when competitive play was resumed in 1919 Evans, as the defender, led the amateurs but was ninth on the list from the top. Hagen, for the second time was the victor, winning after a playoff with Mike Brady.

Now comes Bobby Jones as the fourth amateur to defend the open title. The Atlanta star has somewhat of an edge on his predecessors in that he does not have to qualify. That relieves him of a lot of mental concern and saves his energy.

The traditions of the game and odds of the sport are all against Jones in the open place 1924 when Johnny McDermott scored his second consecutive win.

Nevertheless Jones is as good a bet as any individual in the field. There is no better mental play golfer in the world, he has the stamina to go the route and the courage to master any kind of a crisis. You don't need much more.

EXPECT GIBBONS TO FIGHT AT CLOSE RANGE

MICHIGAN CITY, Ind., May 28 (By the Associated Press). Tommy Gibbons, St. Paul light heavyweight, today started the tapering off process of his training for his 16-round contest with Georges Carpentier here next Saturday while his French opponent, satisfied that he is conditioned to the minute, planned to loaf, taking his final workout tomorrow.

Gibbons is working methodically and plans to continue boxing probably until Friday afternoon. He boxed four opponents yesterday, taking them on for two rounds apiece, but his only real workout was with "Little Kid" Herman, an aggressive 145-pounder. Gibbons gave the impression in his boxing with Herman that he intends to fight Carpentier at close range.

NEW YORK, May 28.—Five Washington marksmen are in the squad of 12 which will represent the United States in the international rifle competitions and the Olympic matches in France, next month, sailing today on the President Harding. They are Gunner Sergeant Morris Fisher, of the Marine Corps, present individual champion of the world; Corporal J. W. Crockett and Private Marcus Dinwiddie of the District of Columbia National Guard; Walter E. Stokes, who was world champion in 1922 and 1923, and his brother, Ralph C. Stokes.

Upon his arrival in France, the team will immediately enter the international rifle competitions which start June 7 at Charlons, and afterwards will fire in the Olympic matches at Rheims and Versailles. The squad is generally regarded as the strongest that ever has represented the United States in international rifle contests.

PHILADELPHIA, May 28.—Additional entries for the American Henley to be rowed on the Schuylkill river on Saturday were announced today. Among them were Walter M. Hoover, former diamond sculls champion, and Granville Gude, of the Potomac Boat Club, Washington, D. C., who will compete in the first single sculls race against Paul Castella, winner of the Philadelphia gold challenge cup on Monday. William E. Garrett Gilmore and Russell Codman, Jr., Union Boat Club, Boston. Other late entries include Crooks, also of the Union Boat Club, and McMillan, of the Penn. A.C., in the second single sculls event.

Childs for annual competition among these three institutions.

Howe High of Billerica was much too fast for Chelmsford High in a loosely played game at North Billerica yesterday, winning by 8 to 2. The Billerica boys made a good start in the opening stanza when Weckstrom, their twirler, connected for a triple with two men on. The home team was never headed off and had a field day with the willow, making thirteen safeties. The fielding was not so good, four errors being chalked against the winners and three against the Chelmsford team. Score by innings: Howe High 2-0-2-0-0-4-0-8; Chelmsford 0-0-0-1-0-1-0-0-2.

HIGH SCHOOL TEAM WINS DEBATE

The high school sophomore debating team won the decision over St. Joseph's school debating team last night in Coburn hall, the subject of the debate being, "Resolved: That the United States should own and operate the railroads."

The high school team, consisting of Edward O'Sullivan, Gerald Quigley, and James Lindquist, with Duncan MacLean as alternate, upheld the affirmative. The St. Joseph's team consisted of Armand Desrosiers, Arthur Leblanc and Mino Generales, with Ovide Bourgeois as alternate.

Both teams presented their arguments in a masterly way and showed conclusively that considerable time and effort had been spent in preparation for the debate. A great deal of credit for the showing of the team goes to Brother Joannes, who coached St. Joseph's, and Amos Flemings, president of the Greenhedge debating society of the high school, who coached the sophomore team.

Alpheus J. Achin, prominent among the debaters of the Greenhedge society and president of the high school graduating class, was chairman of the evening and the judges were Arthur L. Egan, Samuel H. Thompson and Haven G. Hill. Prior to the debate and during the intermission granted for the preparation of rebuttals, the high school orchestra, under the direction of Frederick O. Hunt, entertained with a number of selections.

ROTARY CLUB MEETING

Local Rotarians Addressed by Assistant District Attorney
Robert T. Bushnell

Lowell Rotarians assembled at noon yesterday with several good things on the program billed, starting with a "broiled live" tonster banquet—the first one of the season—a message tinged with a tone of humor from President Arthur Spaulding, who is way up in Maine—a brief address by chairman-of-the-day "Al" Weaver and then a snappy, sharp-pointed address by Robert T. Bushnell, assistant district attorney of Middlesex county.

Benjamin Pouzner acted as president pro-tem in the absence of Mr. Spaulding, although a couple of ex-presidents sat over in one corner.

Before launching into criticism of many court proceedings and legal actions that have often resulted in delaying justice or freed certain offenders against criminal laws, Mr. Bushnell took a few dabs at the soldiers' bonus legislation, declaring it to be the worst thing possible for the country and naming a few of his reasons why he considered it a piece of legislation to be deplored.

Referring to "blind justice," the speaker described the bandaged eyes, the arm outstretched with the weighing scales, and added, with voice rising:

"The district attorney's office in Middlesex county today is trying to prove that justice is blind as represented in the artist's representation."

He said that the course of action in Massachusetts courts in criminal cases today is not swift, sure and certain, with equal rights for all, as it should be. We put ourselves back about our courts, he continued, but the truth is that the present system is one of the better-sketcher sort—a haphazard system.

He described the attitude of certain superior court judges sitting in different cities. In certain cases, a judge sitting in Lowell for a three months' term, may, for instance, sentence a man to serve from six months to two and one-half years for carrying a gun. In Boston, perhaps, another judge would mete out only a fine of $100. In Lowell, guns will be picked up by other folks in the habit of carrying them—put into the old trunk quickly, perhaps, and locked up. In Boston, with only a small fine, the punishment causes little alarm in circles where guns are carried by foreigners.

The assistant district attorney believed that conditions complained of in connection with the distribution of justice in the superior court, could be satisfactorily relieved by having departed judges handle nothing but criminal cases all the time. These could be held responsible for law enforcement. Today, the prosecutor's office is powerless, the speaker said. Judges are not required to follow the district attorney's office recommendations.

The speaker added that in no way could he be accused of criticizing the superior court system, but that "until we have an equal, systematic enforcement of the laws of Massachusetts, we shall see the present situation with its trials, delays and unequal settlements and sentences continued indefinitely."

Mr. Bushnell declared that the administration of justice today in Massachusetts is slow and inefficient. He said the present district attorney and his assistants have cleaned up many old cases on file. There were 1000 or more hanging fire on January 1 last. Cases now come into the courts at the rate of one a month. He approved of the new regulations allowing a district court judge to sit on the superior court bench in case of emergency.

The speaker declared that there is "an overbearing sentimentality today in favor of criminals," and condemned it in round terms. He criticized Chief Justice Rugg of the Massachusetts supreme court and also declared that Massachusetts judges today "are the most efficient part of the administration of criminal law in the state."

He declared that bribery of jurors was less frequent today and advised better protection of all jurors in all cases by delegated officers of the law.

WELLER ENTITLED TO RETAIN SEAT IN HOUSE

WASHINGTON, May 27.—Accepting the recommendation of a committee which investigated charges of irregularities in connection with his election, the house today adopted, without debate, a resolution declaring Royal H. Weller, democrat, entitled to retain his seat as a representative from the 21st New York district.

Weller's election was challenged by former Representative Martin O. Anderson, republican, his opponent at the polls in 1922.

Jack Daw's Adventures. Chapter 5

In a few minutes a small cart and a very funny looking sweater were brought forth from a trunk. Jack held Flip while the clowns put these things on him. Then another clown brought out a little high silk hat. A rubber band was attached to it and it was slipped on Flip's head.

Jack had never seen his dog look so funny before. Flip, of course, tried to get the hat off. He pawed at it until Jack patted him and told him to leave the hat alone. Then Flip barked and seemed to realize that he was now a curious clown and was supposed to look funny.

Suddenly a trumpet blared forth and the clowns all ran out of the little dressing tent. "Come on, sonny," said one of them. "Bring your dog, too. We are going into the big tent now and make the little children laugh." So Flip and Jack ran along after the clowns. (Continued.)

ADVENTURES OF THE TWINS

by Olive Roberts Barton

"WHY, MISTER BAGS, THE CRACKER BARREL IS EMPTY!"

Mister Bags' store in the woods was a great place for all the neighborhood folk to meet and gossip. One day Old Daddy Cranknuts came in and asked for a new kind of cracker barrel, and Mister Bunny came in to use the telephone, and old Ringtail Coon was passing and looked in to wish Mister Bags the time of day.

And so it went until there was quite a party. "It looks like rain," said Mister Bunny wisely, when he had finished talking on the telephone and said, "Much obliged," to Mister Bags, the fairyman storekeeper.

Everybody considered this a moment. "What do you think, Mister Groundhog?" asked Ringtail Coon. "You're our oldest inhabitant." And of course, being the oldest inhabitant, he was expected to know everything. It was suggested that Money Mud Turtle senior, was the very oldest inhabitant, but as Money wasn't sure and no one else could remember, it couldn't be proved on him.

Nesides Ringtail rather liked the honor. Ringtail absent mindingly took a cracker out of the cracker barrel before he answered. "Well," said he, "I don't know. It might be going to rain, and then again it might not. But I would say that if it hadn't started by midnight, it won't rain today."

And having delivered himself of this wise speech, he took another cracker out of the cracker barrel and started to munch at it reflectively. "Did I tell you what happened to me in the last storm?" asked Daddy Cranknuts, who had already told the story at least two dozen times.

"What was that?" asked Mister Bunny, taking a cracker out of the cracker barrel. "Well," began Daddy, "by the way, Ben, you might pass me part of your cracker, I had an early lunch and—"

Mister Bunny took a whole new cracker out of the cracker barrel and passed it over.

"Well, as I was saying," said Daddy, "I bought a brand new bumper-boat from Mister Bags here, and also a pair of go-loshes, and started for Stony Creek where I had to do an errand for Ma, when an awful wind came up and—"

"Is that the day Reddy Fox got after you?" spoke up Mister Groundhog. He'd heard the story so many times, his ears were almost worn out as he told his wife afterwards. "Whether it was that or not, I don't know, but his ears didn't affect his appetite any, and he reached for a cracker out of the cracker barrel."

"Yes," said Daddy in an offhand voice. He didn't say another word, though, about his adventures. He crunched happily at another cracker. When they had all gone, Nancy exclaimed, "Why, Mister Bags, the cracker barrel is empty! There isn't a single one left!"

"I know," said the storekeeper, "it's often that way but I can't help it. I have a plan," said Nick. So they all got their heads together.

TOKIO PAPERS SAY JAPAN CANNOT AND WILL NOT ACCEPT INJUSTICE

Foreign Ministers Authorized to Send Formal Protest

Barring Japanese—Papers Call for Decisive Measures

TOKIO, May 28.—(By the Associated Press) Foreign Minister Matsui today asked and obtained the assent of the prime minister to the forwarding of Japan's protest against American enactment of the immigration bill, barring Japanese. The proceeding was extraordinary, and is interpreted as indicating that unusual importance was attached to the document.

The foreign minister went to the imperial palace immediately after the extraordinary cabinet session, called yesterday to give final approval to the protest, had ended. The regent sanctioned the protest.

The protest was placed upon the ca-

FRANCE LEADS IN RACE FOR "DEATH RAY"

PARIS, May 28.—(By the Associated Press)—France appears today to have a considerable lead in an apparent race of nations to gain control of the "death ray" invented by British mathematicians, the British scientist, who flew from Great Britain in an airplane yesterday, to resume his negotiations with French capitalists, after the British government had failed to give him the backing he demanded.

It was reported today that arrangements had been made for the signing of a contract Friday between Matthews and the Chaudiers du Rhone, the Lyons company negotiating for the invention, and this gave rise to considerable speculation as to what other countries might do in the meantime.

Hearing Today Before Board of Public Utilities Relative to Price of Gas in Lowell

Petition Signed by Gas Consumers and Filed by Representative Thomas J. Corbett Responsible for Hearing — Statement Submitted by General Manager of Lowell Gas Company
Explaining Gas Rate Schedule — Petitioners
Claim That Recent Change in Rates Represents an Increase Rather Than a Decrease

(Special to The Sun)
STATE HOUSE, Boston, May 28.—The first in what may be a series of hearings in connection with gas rates now charged in Lowell by the Lowell Gas Light company, was held today before the board of public utilities with gas company officers, state representatives, city officials and citizens taking part. The next hearing will be held on Thursday, June 12.

The hearing was the direct result of a petition filed with the department of public utilities by Representative Thomas J. Corbett and certain other gas consumers of Lowell, asking for a rate reduction. Practically the entire session this forenoon was taken up by the reading of a statement by Charles R. Pritchard, vice president and general manager of the Lowell Gas company, which explained in detail the rate schedule which went into effect April 1 and which now is under fire by the petitioners. Throughout the hearing, there were expressed marked differences of opinion by the petitioners and by the gas company officials as to whether an actual reduction in rates had been made. The petitioners contended that instead of a decrease, there has been an increase and that small consumers and people less able to pay are the hardest hit, while on the other hand, the gas company officers declare that there has been a general decrease of five and a fraction cents per thousand cubic feet. Representative Thomas J. Corbett was the principal speaker for the petitioners and he strongly opposed any continuance of the hearing, saying that he believed nothing could be gained from further study and declared that it must be evident to the members of the utilities commission that the gas company has imposed an increase in rates at a very ill-advised time, when industrial conditions in Lowell were not good. Commissioner David A. Ellis, who presided at the hearing, said he felt further hearings were not only necessary but fair to all parties concerned in order that Mr. Pritchard's statement and accompanying figures could be given sufficient study.

Attorney Albert E. Pillsbury of Boston, represented the gas company, although most of the statements made in the company's behalf came from Mr. Pritchard.

City Officials Present
Present at the hearing were Solicitor P. J. Reynolds, representing the mayor of Lowell; Representatives Corbett, Brennan and Slattery; City Commissioners Fitzgerald, Lamberd and Hickson; Edward J. Conroy of the gas company; Joseph E. Sullivan, one of the petitioners, and James E. Pritchard.

EMPLOYERS ARE GIVEN SOUND ADMONITIONS

"Don't give an employee any presents while you are having labor troubles with him," advised Sherford F. Fannon, production engineer representing Sherman Service Inc., of Boston, who addressed for the second time within a month a Lowell social organization, the Al club. The address followed the club's weekly dinner served on the second floor of Y.M.C.A. building. President Thomas T. Atkinson presided and introduced Mr. Fannon, billed as an authority on "man engineering" in addition to his reputed accomplishments in production field campaigns.
The speaker repeated much of his address first heard by Lowell Rotarians assembled a few weeks ago in Roy's clubrooms on Dutton street. He departed a little from his previous talk by boosting advertising programs.

SPRINGFIELD, May 28.—The Methodist Episcopal general conference refused today to decide whether or not it had power to place a time limit on the Episcopacy. A majority report in the general conference of 145 votes to 24, and a minority affirmative report was tabled, 450 to 205.
The body's failure to make a decision was criticized as "unbecomingly its dignity" by Henry Wade Rogers of New York city, judge of the United States circuit court of appeals, and chairman of the judiciary committee, which rendered the reports.

SAYS WOMAN KILLED IN SERIES OF FALLS

FITCHBURGH, May 28. Mrs. Maria H. Proctor, 85 years old, whose body was found in her room in the Whalom district Monday night, in a pool of blood, was killed in a series of falls, according to conclusions reached by Dr. D. S. Woodworth, of Fitchburg and Dr. Fred H. Baker, of Worcester, medical examiners after a long examination of the body today.

Dr. Woodworth at an autopsy yesterday declared that the wounds on the aged woman's head were of such a nature that they might have been caused by blows. Dr. Baker asserted that the case is one of the most unusual in his long experience, and he suggested an inquest to confirm the medical opinion.
It is now believed that Mrs. Proctor on a dizzy spell fell against a shelf on a fireplace, dresser and the floor.

GOVERNMENT FACES CRISIS

British Parliamentary Experts
Declare Government Faces
Serious Crisis in Commons

Conservatives to Reintroduce
Motion to Reduce Minister
of Labor's Salary

LONDON, May 28.—(By the Associated Press) The parliamentary experts writing in this morning's newspapers declare the government will again be faced with a serious crisis in tomorrow's session of the house of commons, when the conservatives re-introduce their motion to reduce the minister of labor's salary. This motion was talked out last Thursday after a closure division in which the government had a majority of only 21. On that occasion several conservatives were absent and the promoters of the movement believe that with the presence of these members and the abatement of a section of the liberals, they will be able to defeat the government.

The cry of "Vote", however, has so often been raised that the public is becoming skeptical and but for the statements in governmental quarters that the government is confident, will treat the question as one of confidence and recommend dissolution of parliament, this new alarm would probably not be regarded seriously.

PLANS FOR MEMORIAL DAY OBSERVANCE

Members of the Broadway club have nearly completed plans for a most impressive Memorial day observance, centering about the Aero Boys' memorial monument in Fletcher street, opposite the Broadway clubhouse. A large number of club activities last night attended an executive meeting to make up the official program. President William A. Walsh is chairman of the observance committee.

As in former years, the Broadway clubmen will honor their comrades soldier dead with elaborate and impressive ceremonies. The main observance will be conducted at the monument at 10:30 a. m. Memorial day morning. Mayor John J. Donovan will be among the speakers; there will be singing by an excellent quartet and music by a brass band, among other appropriate features to be announced. The soldiers' monument will be decorated with a wreath—the Broadway club's tribute. Individual memorial pieces received from relatives of the soldier dead whose names are inscribed upon the monument, will also be placed at the foot of the statue.

The honor roll of the Aero Boys' memorial monument, includes 99 names and two to be added. The list comprises nearly a third of the entire roster of the World war dead of Lowell.

Assisting in the club's memorial program will be delegations from the American Legion, the Lowell Navy Club and the Pioneer American Veterans of the World war, all of whom were well represented at last night's meeting called to further the Memorial day plans. School children living in the Aero have been invited to participate in the exercises. Each scholar attending should carry a small American flag. WOMEN'S CLUB MEETING

Women's Club Members
Meet in Middlesex Hall

Interesting Address by Miss
Blanche Cheney of the
Normal School

The regular meeting of the Business and Professional Women's club was held last evening in Middlesex hall with Mrs. Rose Jordan Hartford in the chair. Miss Eleanor Rivet, secretary, read the minutes of the previous meeting which were approved as read. Miss Fannie Mansur, chairman of the membership committee, reported that she had named Miss Annie J. Devine, Mrs. Mary McCann, Mrs. Lilla G. Evans and Mrs. Jessie Howe as members of the committee.

Miss Fred Nevery, chairman of the whist party to be held in Liberty hall early next month, reported that plans for the affair had been completed.

Following the business session an enjoyable program was given by Miss Anney L. French, who entertained with numerous delightful vocal selections, and Miss Helen Osgood, who offered several original monologues. Miss Blanche Cheney of the faculty of the Lowell State Normal School was the speaker of the evening and her talk was most interesting. Speaking on co-operation and community work in general, Miss Cheney said in part: "The women today have a wonderful opportunity before them. We are, however, living in an ever changing world. It seems that the world is so complex that we do not exactly know where woman fits in, how she is to play her part and play it rightly. "One hundred years ago the land was one in which farmers raised their own food, women spun the wool into cloth and from that fashioned garments for the entire family. Today we are able to go to a store and in half an hour purchase an entire outfit. Today the food is raised for us, in fact prepared for us. We are no longer an independent nation. In former days the father killed the calf, tanned the leather and made shoes for his entire family. Today we find that shoes are made by machines and that from 80 to 100 different operations are necessary for fashioning the smallest sandal.

"What are we going to do? How are we to help our city, our state, our country? We must get down to fundamental principles. We must develop the qualities of co-operation and better service.

"The problems today are enormous. There are the economic problems; capital and labor; the place of woman in industry; learning the proper way in which to use our leisure hours since the institution of the 8-hour day; the immigration problem; the American help solve these problems? We must study the thing, discuss it from numerous angles. We must view the question from numerous points. To do that we need straight, independent thinking. We must be open-minded not only in dealing with questions but in dealing with people. We must be tolerant. No matter what religion a following belongs to, no matter what nationality he proclaims, if that fellow does the thing and does it the way it should be done, we must recognize him.

"One of the most difficult things today is to get the other fellows viewpoint," said Miss Cheney. Illustrating this topic Miss Cheney read a portion of a letter written by a Chinese minister who had been visiting in America. He characterized the Americans as uncivilized with no sense of decency. "Women appear almost naked before men who admire them and they are dressed about large rooms to the tune of belch music." At least he had his viewpoint," stated Miss Cheney.

"It is very difficult to impress the necessity of responsibility upon the people today," continued Miss Cheney. Here she read a portion of Albert J. Hubbard's "Message to Garcia," at which instance Bruce was given a letter to deliver to Garcia. "He took it without asking where is he at, and after three weeks of treacherous traveling, through the lines of the enemy he returned—he had delivered his letter. "What we need today is a stiffening of the backbone; the concentration of energy and the will to do a thing. We must avoid this shifting of responsibility. The fellow who can do his work when the boss is away as well as when he is at home, in other words, the fellow who can deliver the message to Garcia is wanted in every store, in every office, in every corporation.

"To work happily and efficiently we must have the spirit of co-operation. We must have definite projects, and we must have set methods by which to put these projects into execution. We must think clearly and we must have unshaken judgment. There is a demand for the common good and for citizenship in general is what the world needs today and it is the business and professional women who can do that. It is by developing these qualities that you can be a mighty powerful factor in your city."

At the conclusion of Miss Cheney's address Miss French gave another group of songs which were greatly enjoyed. Miss Margaret Martin played an entertaining accompaniment to Miss French.

The next meeting of the club will be held June 10 at 7:15 o'clock at the rooms of the Kimball School in Central street. Mrs. Kimball, a member of the club, will be the hostess of the evening.

DRUG ADDICTS GRILLED

Questioned in Connection

With Kidnaping and Death of Chicago Boy

CHICAGO, May 28.—Investigation of the death of Robert Franks, 13-year-old son of a Chicago millionaire, whose body was found in a railroad culvert last Thursday just before a $10,000 ransom demand was delivered to his parents, assumed a new angle today, when officers began rounding up drug addicts for questioning.

Evidence that narcotic users kidnaped the boy at the instigation of a well-informed principal, had been in the hands of authorities several days. It was learned.

According to State's Attorney Crowe, the investigators expect to find some user of drugs sufficiently well acquainted with the movements of the Franks family to have contrived a kidnapping plot and engage someone else to carry out the plan.

"The killing was an accident," the state's attorney said, "and everything that followed was undertaken to cover the accident. Drugs will be found at the bottom of it all."

WILL OPPOSE BUS LINE PERMIT

Opposition to the granting of a permit to Harry L. Povey and Horace C. Bailey to operate a bus line from Cardinal O'Connell parkway to Pelham by way of Draught as petitioned to the city council last evening, will be entered by the street railway company at the public hearing on this petition set for June 17.

The railway company's opposition will be based on the ground that this bus line will operate in competition to the street railway from the city line to Cardinal O'Connell parkway and that such competition would be detrimental to the efficiency of the already established street railway service.

In outlining the opposition of the street railway company, Manager McCormick of the local division said his company would not oppose the permit if the bus company would operate only to the end of the Rockwood hills, but that the company would oppose the permit if the bus company would operate to the city center and transfer passengers to electric cars at either of these points.

The street railway company, he said, will oppose every application for a permit for the operation of motor busses in the city by a competing company for the reason that motor traffic here is only sufficient to permit one mode of service and the regular street railway service, which is already established and controlled by state-appointed trustees, should be the favored service. If one competing bus company gets a foothold here, he continued, it will only be a short time before others will and take a great deal of the electric railway's traffic, resulting in curtailed electric car service. The result of this would be, in his opinion, that many of the bus lines would fail to pay expenses and would discontinue service, so that those who later the people of the city who would depend upon car service would be without any service at all. The street railway company, he added, does not depend upon people living in the streets where car tracks are laid as a source of passenger traffic, but depends upon all sections of the city which are within half-a-mile of a street car line as a source of traffic which should not be interfered with by bus lines.

LOWELL GIRL WILL RECEIVE DEGREE

The Right Reverend Thomas J. Slattery, rector of the Catholic University of America, will pontificate. Others officers of the mass will be: Very Rev. P. J. McCormick, assistant priest; Rev. Nicholas A. Weber, S. M., and Rev. C. Capellini, O. P., deacons of honor. Rev. George Johnson and Rev. Edward J. Jordan, deacons of the mass; Rev. Anthony A. Finnerty, master of ceremonies. The baccalaureate sermon will be preached by Rev. John M. Cooper. Members of the class will sing De Meiller's mass.

Among the young ladies who will receive degrees is Miss Helen Gladys Walker, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Daniel H. Walker of Lowell.

REPORT LARKIN HAS FLED

FROM IRELAND

DUBLIN, May 28.—James Larkin, head of the Transport Workers' union, a number of whose followers were arrested Monday after they had taken possession of the disputed labor headquarters in Liberty hall, left Ireland last night for an unannounced destination. It was stated in the Chancery court here today in a hearing on an application for an attachment against him.

A strike of 4000 workers in the port of Dublin was called Monday as a result of the arrest of the Larkins, but after the men arrested had been released on bail, Larkin called off the strike that afternoon.

The applicants for the attachment, were members of the executive committee of the transport workers' union, who recently obtained an injunction against Larkin in connection with the occupation of Liberty Hall. When the case was called today, counsel for the applicants said Larkin had left the country last night, and that the applicants proposed not to go on with the case. The master of the rolls assented to the discontinuance.

HOFFMAN'S FATE

HANDS OF JURY

NEW YORK, May 28.—The case of Harry L. Hoffman, motion picture operator, charged with the killing of Mrs. Mary Hoffman, last March, will pass into the hands of the jury today, if cross-examination of the defendant ends, as anticipated, early this afternoon.

Hoffman, on the stand yesterday, declared that Barbara Fabs, the 12-year-old girl witness, who last identified him as the man who had killed Mrs. Hoffman, was not the man who had killed her.

WOODEN LEG MADE HIM WALK LIKE DRUNKARD

FITCHBURG, May 28.—That his wooden leg, which caused him to stagger, made him to walk like a drunken man, was the defense of Thomas H. McElwain, formerly in a saw-milling plant in district court today, when he was tried on a charge of operating an automobile while under the influence of liquor. He was adjudged not guilty.

Time Limit on Episcopacy

The majority report from the table was defeated, however, 370 to 342. The action of this conference is in violation of the constitutional rights of the membership of the church. Judge Rogers said, "No court in America would close its doors in the face of a man who came in a proper way and sought admission. When it comes to a question of law on any subject, the conference has no right to run away from a decision and put the matter on the table."

Debate Van Camp Dies

The death of Delegate Andrew N. Van Camp, a lawyer of Hingham, S. D., was announced at the conference. Mr. Van Camp died of bronchial pneumonia, after three days in a local hospital.

Police Charge Violation Of Narcotic Law charged with "unlawful" possession of hypodermic instruments and his bonds were increased from $500 to $800.

This increase in bail was allowed by Judge Pickman this morning, on request of the prosecuting officer, Deputy District Attorney, because of the circumstances. Mr. Buckley argued against the increase, saying he would have a difficult time securing bail, but he asked that provision be made that he be held in custody as he needed it right away.

OF BISHOPS UPHELD

OF BISHOPS UPHELD

CLEVELAND, Ohio, May 28.—(By the Associated Press.) Jurisdiction of the Court of Bishops of the Protestant Episcopal church to try Rev. William Montgomery Brown on charges of uttering doctrines contrary to those held by the church, was unanimously upheld by that body today. The ruling was announced orally in two brief sentences by Bishop John G. Murray, president of the court, did not give ground for the decision.

Lowell Gas Hearing

Representative Corbett quoted a section of chapter 164 of the general laws which states that a minimum charge of $7 a year shall be maintained by all gas companies in the city. He then quoted the section involved and said that the law is being violated by the Lowell Gas company. Mr. Corbett said further that he spoke for the people of Lowell who are not well able to pay what the rates are required to under the new rates and that he would go into Lowell at once and give the necessary relief. He urged also that if the hearing was to be continued to a later date that during the interim the public utilities commission should order the gas company to go back to its old rates pending a decision by the commission. It felt it did not have this power but promised that every effort would be made to clear up the matter at the earliest possible moment.

Matter Deserves Study

Chairman Ellis said that he felt everyone would profit by a study of the matter because he felt it needs a great deal of consideration.

Speaking for the mayor, Selinger Reynolds said that all the members of the city government are very anxious to get all possible information regarding the matter and do not care to go on record as for or against until it has been definitely established whether a decrease or an increase has been made in the rate of gas. He said that small consumers of gas need to be carried at a loss by the company whereas under the present system these users are simply paying their share of the freight.

FAVORABLE WITH PRICES IN OTHER CITIES

FAVORABLE WITH PRICES IN OTHER CITIES

It cannot be expected that the price of gas in Lowell and other New England cities having high freight rates can be brought down to that of the price in other cities. For example, the freight on gas coal to Lowell from the Pennsylvania districts all rail, is $5.25 per gross ton. The freight on coal from the mines to tide water shipping points is $2.57 per gross ton, and the going rate of freight from tide water shipping points to Boston and vicinity today is $1.00 per gross ton. This makes the "freight" rate of $3.75 per gross ton for seaport cities, and $5.25 per gross ton all rail to Lowell, a difference of $1.50

AMERICAN INTEREST IN BRITISH "DEATH RAYS"

LONDON, May 28. (By the Associated Press.)—Reports of American interest in the British "death rays" are current here. The National Academy of sciences in Washington, is stated to have culled over, asking details, while rumor is that the United States navy department has communicated with H. Grindell Matthews, inventor of the "diabolical ray." A Paris despatch goes so far as to say that the navy department offered to purchase the secret, but that Matthews refused. Matthews left for France yesterday by airplane, breaking off his negotiations with the British government.

"Here's a Loaf like Your Mother Made"

WHEN you stop and think how good your mother's bread used to taste, this looks like a pretty strong statement. But it's true, just the same. You need not take our word for this—in fact, we'd rather you wouldn't. We'd like to have you put Old Home Potato Bread to a test. Try a loaf in your own home. Serve it to your family and see if they don't agree that it really has an old-time, home-made taste.

Mother, herself, thinks Old Home is a mighty fine loaf. And mother is a real judge of bread, too, because she baked her own for so many years. She can discuss the fine points of bread baking with you by the hour. So her opinion carries a lot of weight in these matters.

It pleases us a lot to have such a culinary expert as mother put her stamp of approval on Old Home Potato Bread. She says it's as good as she could make herself—a very flattering opinion. But we'll say this much: if effort counts for anything, Old Home should run mother's own bread a mighty close race, for we certainly have done our best to produce a loaf full of old-fashioned goodness and nourishment. We leave it to you to judge how well we have succeeded.

More Slices — Goes Farther

Here's another thing you'll like about Old Home Potato Bread: it's made in a new shaped loaf—a loaf that is considerably longer than the ordinary style. Naturally this long loaf gives you more slices than the usual loaf, so it goes farther. And these slices are the nicest size for sandwiches, toasting, or any other use. You can effect quite a saving on your bread bill by using this long loaf.

Your grocer has Old Home Potato Bread for you. Include a loaf in your order today. Put it to the test and see if it isn't just as fine as bread can be. You'll find it has that real home-made flavor.

Betsy Ross is a milk loaf—a loaf made of the choicest ingredients, with a liberal quantity of milk added to give it extra nourishment. It is tasty and nutritious, and comes to you in its original package—a waxed wrapper that keeps it fresh from the bakery to your table.

HELD "CHARTER NIGHT"

Enthusiastic Meeting by Lowell Lions Club in Liberty Hall

President Bartlett Presents Charter in Behalf of Lions International

The Lions roared with pleasure and no contagious was their enthusiasm that their lady guests of the evening, not to be outdone by the menfolk, joined together and gave the four as well, at the first annual meeting and "Charter Night" of the Lowell Lions club. The meeting was held in Liberty

CHARLES E. BARTLETT
President

ly hall last evening and was attended by about 60 Lions and their women folk, and a large number of guests. The affair opened at 8 o'clock with the singing of "America" by the gathering and an invocation by Rev. Harold P. Carr, followed by a splendid course dinner. For nearly an hour, until the main course had been served and eaten, the dinner was the main object of interest.

While the tables were being cleared and the dessert served, President Charles E. Bartlett called the meeting to order and gave a short talk on the meaning of the observance. He recalled the first few months of the club's existence, when it struggled along under the handicap of a small membership and even smaller treasury. Through the long months of untiring effort, culminating less than a month ago with the initiation of the 60th member and the gaining of the right to claim a charter from the International organization. He then introduced Mayor Donovan, who expressed his interest in the organization and wished it well. Community singing, with George R. Smith at the piano, followed. The next number of the program was a group of selections on the saxophone by G. Guy Dunbar. For an encore Mr. Dunbar entertained with several novelty numbers on the violin.

Edward Fisher, president of the chapter of commerce, was introduced by President Bartlett and extended to the club the best wishes of the chamber on its first anniversary and predicted for it a great future in the civic life of the community. In conclusion, he paid a tribute to Mr. Bartlett, first president of the club, as one of the most active men in the civic life of the community.

Benjamin S. Pouzner, vice president of the Rotary club, brought that organization's felicitations to its sister organization. Mr. Pouzner explained the duty he performed would have been undertaken by the president, Arthur C. Spaulding, but for the fact that the latter is attending a Rotary district convention in Waterville, Me. "He profits most who serves best," the motto of Rotary, formed the theme of Mr. Pouzner's talk and he spoke of the friendship of Rotary and the Lions club and urged the two organizations to cooperate, to take the same motto, and do everything possible for the civic benefit of the city.

Mr. Dunbar made his second appearance following Mr. Pouzner's talk and entertained with several trombone solos, accompanied at the piano by Mr. Broderick. For an encore he played two popular numbers on the banjo.

The principal address of the evening and the presentation of the charter had been arranged to be given by Raymond T. King, district governor of Lions International. At the last moment, President Bartlett said, Mr. King was obliged to cancel his engagement and it was impossible to secure anyone to take his place. The chairman, arrived in time, however, and Mr. Bartlett presented it to the club in behalf of Lions International.

The final number of the program was the singing of "Till We Meet Again" by the membership and the meeting adjourned after giving three hearty cheers to the president.

DIVIDEND FOR TRADERS
BANK DEPOSITORS

WASHINGTON, D. C., May 28.—Preparations for the payment of a 1 per cent dividend to depositors of the Federal Reserve Bank of Lowell are rapidly going forward in the office of the General Receiver of Insolvent National Banks, Congressman John Jacob Rogers learned today.

Congressman Rogers is endeavoring to have payment of the dividend expedited as much as possible and with this in view has kept in touch with the general receiver, J. M. Porter. That official informs the Lowell congressman that he is doing everything in his power to hasten matters. "It is quite an undertaking to make calculations for more than a 13,500 calculations and prepare the schedules, checks, and receipts," the receiver stated. "I assure you," he continues, "the work is being prepared as rapidly as possible and payment will begin as soon as the work can be finished."

While the regular office force of the general receiver, together with extra help, has been working at top speed, it is thought that everything will not be ready for payment of the dividend for a few weeks yet. However, the several thousand Lowell depositors will be pleased to know that their dividend checks are in preparation.

LA FOLLETTE IS READY TO RUN

Wisconsin Senator May Be Candidate for President on Independent Ticket

To Run Unless Major Parties "Purge Themselves of Evil Influences in Control"

WASHINGTON, May 28.—Senator La Follette today virtually announced that he will run for president on an independent ticket, "unless the approaching democratic and republican conventions demonstrate to the people whether either of those parties can and will purge itself of the evil influences which have long dominated them."

"If this is not done," Senator La Follette wrote to Attorney General E. A. Tamm, "a long suffering and right-minded people will find in the coming campaign of 1924 a new and better basis than these old parties, to take back control of their government and make it truly representative."

At the same time, Senator La Follette denounced the communists and openly charged that they were seeking to take control of the "farmers' progressive" convention called to meet at St. Paul, June 17.

"In my judgment," he wrote, "the convention will not command the support of the farmers, the workers or other progressives because those who have had charge of the arrangements for this convention have permitted the fatal error of making the communists an integral part of their organization. The communists have admittedly entered into this political movement, not for the purpose of curing by means of the ballot the evils which afflict the American people, but only to divide and confuse the progressive movement and create a condition of chaos favorable to their ultimate aims. Their real purpose is to establish by revolutionary action, a dictatorship of the proletariat which is absolutely repugnant to American ideals, and to all American aspirations."

In his letter, Senator La Follette quoted an official statement of the central executive committee of the workers' party of America, and a cablegram from the communist faction at the American revolution party for the St. Paul convention, which he declared "show clearly that they are seeking to use the farmer-labor party of Minnesota and other progressive organizations that have lent their names to this convention as a means of advancing their own ends." "I have devoted many years of my life to an effort to solve the problems which confront the American people, by the ballot and not by force," wrote the Wisconsin senator. "I believe that the people through the ballot can completely control their government in every branch and compel it to serve them effectively. I have fought steadfastly to achieve this end, and I shall not abandon this fight as long as I may live. I believe, therefore, that all progressives should refuse to participate in any movement which seeks to compromise with any communist organization."

Senator La Follette's letter closed with his declaration respecting the republican and democratic conventions which was acknowledged by his close friends as an announcement of his candidacies for the next election and platforms of the two major parties fail to accomplish the changes he regards as necessary.

ROSELAND WILL OPEN
THIS EVENING

Roseland, the popular dancing pavilion on the Lawrence-Lowell hotel, will open for the season tonight. Elaborate preparations have been made by the management and this season Roseland promises to enjoy even greater success than that of the last year. The hotel and hotel original Broadway songwriters will furnish the music and this announcement alone is sufficient to attract dance lovers to the pavilion in great numbers.

The dance hall has been thoroughly renovated during the past few weeks. The stage has been made just twice as large as it was last year and one of the biggest Broadway Grand piano possibilities to secure has been added. The new sky effect, one of the latest innovations in dance hall decorations, will make a big hit with patrons of the pavilion. Another attraction will be the dancers of roses which will greatly enhance the beauty of the hall.

Perhaps the greatest attraction of all, however, will be the fact that the orchestra will be made up of men which will be in Lowell Thursday direct from Roseland, New York, where Hallett has made the biggest hit of his career. Wednesday, Thursday, Friday and Saturday nights of this grand piano possibilities will be charged to the pavilion. This is to give Hallett and his orchestra an opportunity to play selections which made a wonderful hit in New York and which the would-be able to play under the check dancing system for lack of time. Starting next Tuesday night, the regular check dancing will be inaugurated and will continue until Oct. 12 with Hallett's orchestra furnishing the music at all times.

Francis J. Reane, one of the best known dance men in this section of the country, who was manager of Associated Ball, and is also interested in the new Commodore ballroom in this city, will be general manager. He will be assisted by William P. Wholey of Lawrence as resident manager.

Six Lowell men, members of Aleppo Shrine of Boston, will leave on Saturday with 600 other members of the order in this general vicinity for Kansas City, Mo., where on June 3, 4 and 5, one hundred thousand Shriners will gather for the Golden Jubilee session of the imperial council. The Lowell men are Ernest L. Kimball and Lewis Carpenter, Kimball System, Inc., and Eugene C. Dunbar, vice president of the Pratt & Forest Lumber Co., all three members of the Justly famous Aleppo Temple lodge, and Frank V. Morse, manager of the Lowell Iron & Steel Co.; Dan ward W. Freeman, jeweler, and Frank C. Gilbert, manager of the Thermidike Coal Co., who are members of Arab Patrol, Aleppo Temple.

The Lowell Shriners will be away until June 11 and look forward to the convention as the biggest in point of numbers and the best from the standpoint of enthusiasm, ever held by the order. The trip to and from Boston by the Aleppo Shriners will be made in two special trains.

All formal convention sessions will be presided over by Imperial Potentate, Conrad V. Dykeman, elected last year at Washington. Election of officers this year will make James E. Chandler of Kansas City Imperial potentate, as it is a Shrine custom to advance Imperial officers one position each year.

This custom leaves only one office open for election this year, that of Imperial outer guard, with six men as announced candidates—L. P. Stewart of Washington, D. C.; Allan McCants, Meriden, Miss.; Dana S. Williams, Lewiston, Me.; John N. Sebrell, Jr., Norfolk, Va.; Carl W. Cummins, St. Paul, Minn., and James E. Chandler.

AMUSEMENT NOTES

RIALTO THEATRE

In the cast of Wm. Fox screen version of "The Plunderer," which is now playing at Lowell's Rialto theatre, there appears a group of performers with enviable records on the stage and before the camera. This fact, combined with an extraordinary story and scene after scene of spectacular perfection, serves to make the picture one of the best shown here this season.

Frank Mayo has the leading role as a hard-hitting, clear-eyed super-intendant. Evelyn Brent is the "Lily" picture owner of a local dance hall and gambling inferno with whom the young mine superintendent is in love. From Santschi is admirable as the plunderer. A villain, if ever there was one, others in the cast are John Mason, Peggy Shaw, Edward Phillips and Dan Mason, late of "Tommy's" troupe fame. All of them have had some experience and success. Their talents are brought into full play in this picture with romance and action. A scene showing a mining town flooded beneath the waters of a wrecked reservoir is one of the most thrilling a fan would want to see.

But by far the blindest "punch" in the picture is the thrilling fist fight between Mayo and Tom Santschi. Even the historical film of "The Spillers" in which Santschi has participated, fades into oblivion compared to this bloodthirsty scrap. If you have any red blood in your veins this fight will make it tingle. It's a great fight—don't miss it!

A special attraction that will excite much local interest is "The White Way" jazz band, under the direction of John Bradford. The band is composed of all local young men who are preparing a vaudeville act. If you like real modern jazz music—hear this band. They have been engaged for the holiday night (Friday) only.

MERRIMACK SQUARE THEATRE

Final performances will be given this evening at the Merrimack Square theatre of "The Confidence Man," starring Thomas Meighan, and "Drums of Jeopardy," the famous Harold Lloyd story with Elaine Hammerstein in the featured role. This program has delighted hundreds since it was first shown Sunday.

John Barrymore, America's most distinguished actor in African Brummel, history's greatest romantic drama, played amid scenes of romantic splendor, is the attraction offered by Manager Peterson for Thursday, Friday and Saturday. It is a 12-reel production.

More than 500 costumes, representing periods of 1775, 1811 and 1821, were assembled for the filming of this screen drama. The extras used included 200 French soldiers, 50 members of the French nobility, 200 courtiers, and 100 officers of the court and 50 officers of the French Hussars.

The characterization is an entire novelty. It is suited to the times, and is a sensation as Hamlet on Broadway. The personality of Beau Brummel has captivated the imaginations of men and women by his refinement and the dramatic rise and fall of his career. During the heyday of his popularity, he was king of dandies, "the little sovereign of a little world who had his divine right and his reason d'être like any other king," as someone has said. He had perfect taste in clothes, and vanity and insolence carried to such unheard-of lengths that they ceased to offend, but became instead merely picturesque and amusing, making him one of the most vivid figures in the social history of Europe. At heart, beneath all he had a broken heart and tried to conceal it by masquerading as a lover of clothes.

How he rises to heights and then becomes a paupered exile is shown in this photograph.

The supporting cast includes Mary Astor, Willard Louis, Irene Rich, Alice E. Francis, Carmel Myers and others. Harry Benmont directed the production. In addition to this big production, the program for the week-end will have as a second feature the latest "Our Gang" comedy release, "Commencement Day." It is said to be the funniest comedy yet produced by these entertainers. The latest number of the International News will round out the bill.

For the entire week beginning next Sunday the management announces Harold Lloyd in "Fist Fight," said to be better than all the other Lloyd pictures put together.

B. F. KEITH'S THEATRE

"The Old Foot" which Barrymore and Neta Parker present at the B. F. Keith theatre this week, is exceedingly swift action, and it is accompanied by a steady flow of music. The Primrose Four, one of the best crew of harmonizers in the world, are the winners with their repertoire, and Lena Stephens and Len D. Hollister have one of the bits of the show with their "Passing Parade." It is a comedy gem. The Benning put forward a speedily good juggling act, filled with novelty, and Foley and Jerome bring forth a worthwhile singing turn.

The opening act, "The Tourists," shows as neat a bit of dancing as one will find. The week's main attraction is "My Man," with Percy Ruth Miller and Gusti Farnum in the leading roles.

CHELMSFORD MEMORIAL DAY OBSERVANCE

Chelmsford Veterans association has completed its plans for the due observance of Memorial day, Friday, with the assistance of the American Legion, the Spanish War veterans and Sons of Veterans organizations. A feature of the observance will be the annual street parade, under the leadership of Chief Marshal J. K. Knowlton.

The column will leave town hall, Chelmsford Centre, at 2.15 a.m., covering the usual lines of march. Chelmsford band will lead the line. Fortunate cemetery will be first visited and the G. A. R. stand read there. Following, the column will halt at the revolutionary monument on the common for the customary salute. The march will be taken up afterward to town hall, where exercises will be conducted in honor of the solemn day.

The program in the hall will include the presentation of a Memorial day address by Rev. Charles H. Ellis, pastor of Central Baptist church; readings by Mrs. A. C. Perkins; selections by the Congregational church quartet and music by Chelmsford band. Women of the American Legion Ladies' auxiliary are to serve dinner for all persons connected with the different veterans' organizations and all aids performing duties in connection with the Memorial day observance.

Chelmsford Veterans association lost one member through death, last year—Comrade Seymour Kneeland, formerly a member of Co. C, First Vermont Cavalry volunteers, who died February 1. There are only six veteran soldiers remaining on the active rolls of the association.

city's schools, was in two sections. The first section was given over to readings and instrumental numbers, featuring several selections by the school orchestra. The orchestra is composed of 16 students and last night's performance was its first public appearance.

The second part of the program consisted of folk songs and dances and was particularly interesting. Songs and dances of Italy, France, Spain, Poland, Scotland, England, Ireland and America were given by talented young pupils of the school in a way that won the hearts of the audience.

ENTERTAINMENT AT THE VARNUM SCHOOL

The assembly hall of the Varnum school was well filled with parents and friends of the students last evening when the opening number of an entertainment for the benefit of the school fund was given.

From the very first number to the final curtain, the audience was well pleased with the youngsters' performance and applauded each section of the performance heartily.

The program, given under the direction of Miss Elizabeth Kennedy, principal of the school, with the assistance of the faculty and Miss Gertrude O'Brien, assistant music director of the school, was in two sections. The first section was given over to readings and instrumental numbers, featuring several selections by the school orchestra. The orchestra is composed of 16 students and last night's performance was its first public appearance.

ALLIES TO REPLY TO GERMANY

PARIS, May 28.—(By the Associated Press) The allied council of Ambassadors has agreed on the terms of the reply it will make to the note from Germany relative to the resumption of inter-allied control of German armaments, it is announced. The text of the reply will be withheld until the note has been received in Berlin. It is known, however, that it adheres closely to the original decision of the ambassadors that the transformation of the military control commission into a committee on guarantees must be preceded by a general inquiry into the state of Germany's military establishment, with a complete inventory of its resources.

At St. Mark's, Fr. O'Day will fill the vacancy caused by the transference of Rev. William P. Drennon, who has been assigned to St. Paul's parish, Lynn.

Rev. Fr. Desmond is a native of West Newton. He is also a graduate of Boston college where he distinguished himself in scholastic pursuits. He prepared for the priesthood at Brighton seminary and was ordained last Friday. His addition to the Eastern parish makes three clergymen there, the others being the pastor, Rev. Charles J. Rev. Joseph Armand Provost, the only Lowell boy to be ordained Friday, has been assigned to St. Joseph's parish, Kingston.

MATRIMONIAL

At the chapel of the Immaculate Conception church at 3 O'Brien street, last afternoon, Mr. Edward W. Gallagher, formerly assistant secretary of the chamber of commerce, and at present secretary of the New England Retail Clothiers' Association, and Miss Bernice A. Miss Louise Parks, of Bristol, Conn., was bridesmaid, and Mr. Paul E. Gallagher, brother of the bridegroom, acted as best man.

She wore a beautiful gown of brown Elizabeth crepe with hat to match and a corsage bouquet of pansies and orchids. The bridesmaid wore a gown of pale blue canton crepe with hat to match and carried an old-fashioned bouquet. The happy couple left immediately after the ceremony on an extended honeymoon tour to include the Mohawk trail and a visit to New York city. PRETTY DANCING PARTY IN COLONIAL HALL

Colonial hall was the scene of a pretty dancing exhibition last evening when the pupils of Miss Cecilia Crowe, popular teacher of dancing, were tendered their annual reception. The stage was prettily arranged with palms, making an artistic setting for the orchestra.

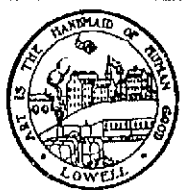

The program was opened with a grand march followed by a fox trot in which all the pupils participated. "Steptomime," a pretty sketch in which the younger pupils took part, was most entertaining. Arline Handley playing the role of Sandman to perfection.

"Exquisite" offered by Vivian Adams, a dainty, well executed number was heartily applauded by the large audience which filled the hall to capacity. Alfreda Webb, proved herself "A Dainty Miss" and interpreted her number excellently. One of the prettiest numbers was the "Dance of the Seasons," in which spring was interpreted by Phyllis Cashin; summer, Mary Cosgrove; autumn, Rita Handley; winter, Helen Hall. Emma Sheehan played the part of flower girl, while the "Spirit of 1924" was represented by Doris Master.

"An Old Fashioned Polka," given by Master Leonard Sheehan and Baby Newhall, was most pleasing, the youngsters admirably executing the numerous steps. Miss Cecilia Crowe entertained with a toe ballet which was given with a precision which accentuated her ability as a most capable exhibition dancer and successful teacher. At the conclusion of the various numbers the participants were presented bouquets of flowers. General dancing was enjoyed until a late hour with music furnished by a local orchestra. The matrons of the evening were Mrs. George Tyler, Mrs. Albert Todd, Mrs. John Handley, Mrs. Fred Wagon and Mrs. Alfred Webb. Messrs. Roland Beaudeau, William Keirns, Bird Hay and Chadwick, acted as ushers. Mr. Fred Crowe was chief of the evening and Miss Helen Crowe, assistant.

THE LAST CALL FOR CAMP DEVENS

Last call to the young men of New England who desire to attend the 1924 citizens' military training camp at Camp Devens, August 1 to 31, next, was issued today by Pierpont L. Stackpole, civilian aide to the secretary of war, from Military Training Camps' association headquarters in Boston. Already nearly 2500 applicants have been enrolled and from the steady stream of filled blankets arriving at headquarters, it appears that the full quota of 3000 will be enrolled within the next week or two. At the latest, Army officers present in the present recruiting campaign, fully believe that the application lists will be filled to overflowing and that numerous youths will be sorry they did not send in their blankets earlier in the season. All young men between the ages of 17 and 24, contemplating taking advantage of this training, are urged by Civilian Aide Stackpole to lose no time in procuring applications from the local representatives of the association, or from Boston headquarters, Room 214, 54 State street.

Sealed proposals will be received at the Office of the Purchasing Agent until 11 a. m., Tuesday, June 3, 1924, on the following material:
 Reg. 10418, Street Dept.
 10,000 gallons, more or less, of 31-100-000 Methyl Alcohol, as per specifications at the Office of the Purchasing Agent.
 Reg. 15,200, Street Dept.
 Paving Material for year 1924 as per specifications at the Office of the Purchasing Agent.
 The Purchasing Agent reserves the right to reject any or all bids.

REV. SHIELDS SPEAKER AT EDUCATIONAL CLUB

Rev. Lewis B. Shields, pastor of the First Presbyterian church, was the speaker before the Educational club at its regular meeting held in Kitson hall yesterday afternoon. Previous to the address, a short business session was held with President Mrs. Elizabeth D. Leggat in the chair. It was announced that the final meeting of the season would be held Tuesday, at which time the election of officers will be held. Rev. Mr. Shields spoke in part as follows: "We have entered upon a week in which comes the day known as Memorial day, originated for the purpose of honoring our soldier dead. It will be a sad day when we forget to remember those who gave their lives that we might enjoy the privileges we do today."

"My purpose today is to invite you to consider the sentiment now so prevalent, the anti-war sentiment. You all remember when President Harding, standing beside the tomb of the Unknown Dead, said, 'It must not be again.' And all men today are feeling more strongly than ever that 'it must not be again.' The men who say this today are not unpatriotic, they are not afraid to die, they are men who have looked the fact in the face and have become convinced of the futility of war. The speaker then read various items from papers in reference to 'no more war.' He also explained the various reasons why wars are often futile. 'The results of the World war have not justified themselves in young manhood, indelible marks upon the moral relations of nations. It has retarded the constant battle against disease. It has left the mark of the moral loss born of the hatred instilled by war. But more than anything else, it has failed to make the world safer for democracy.'

LOWELL KENNEL CLUB
 Slim attendance of members at scheduled business meeting of Lowell Kennel club, in Odd Fellows building in Middlesex street, last evening, called for postponement of business until a later date to be announced.

FIRE BREAKS OUT IN MONGEAU BUILDING

Fire of unknown origin broke out last evening in an unoccupied room on the third floor of the Mongeau building and threatened for a few moments to become a serious blaze. Firemen summoned by an alarm from box 12 at 9.40 o'clock brought the blaze under control, however after a ten-minute battle. Damage was limited to the room in which the fire originated.

GIANT WREATH OF SCARLET POPPIES WOVEN TO HALLOW THE UNKNOWN SOLDIER'S TOMB AT ARLINGTON

A giant poppy wreath, the national tribute of the Veterans of Foreign Wars, will be laid on the tomb of the Unknown American soldier in the National cemetery at Arlington on Memorial day as a special feature of the poppy day program of the V. F. W. observed in connection with its annual poppy sale.

Pittingly two of America's gold star mothers intertwined the final poppies into the wreath symbol of a nation's reverence.

Mrs. Charles Berger of Pittsburgh whose son, Elmer M. Berger of the 11th Infantry, gave his life in France, and Mrs. Lydia Regelman of the same city, whose son, Hall, a member of the same regiment, was also killed in action.

All the poppies used in the official observance of poppy day are "Buddy Poppies" made by disabled American ex-service men in a specially equipped V. F. W. poppy factory in Pittsburgh, Pa. To date more than 3,000,000 poppies have been completed, each bearing the label, "Wear a Buddy Poppy," and the entire proceeds from their sale will be devoted to relief of war-disabled.

All the men employed in the poppy factory are men suffering from war time disabilities, who cannot be re-habilitated by the Veterans bureau because their disability was not contemplated by the War Risk and Veterans Training laws when passed and who are designated by the government as "nonfeasible." The poppy, not only affords these war-disabled a livelihood, which is the chief reason for its production, but in addition helps to relieve their self-respect and rebuild their morale.

President Coolidge, who has designated his warm regard with the V. F. W. poppy day plan, himself wears the first Buddy Poppy, a specially made disabled boy in the factory hand.

Professional organizations and representative trades associations covering practically every branch of the country's professional and industrial life have signified their cordial official endorsement of the movement by formal resolutions and letters. At the same time that the mammoth wreath of scarlet memorial blossoms is laid on the tomb of the Unknown American soldier, a duplicate will be laid by the Veterans of Foreign Wars on the Soldiers' and Sailors' monument in New York, and thousands of smaller similar wreaths will be laid on memorial monuments throughout the country during the Memorial day services by the various local V. F. W. posts. In still further significance of tribute to the World War dead on Memorial day in Paris a second giant wreath of the Arlington wreath will be laid on the tomb of the Unknown French soldier at the Arc de Triomphe in accordance with a custom annually observed since the war by the Veterans of Foreign Wars. "With their poppies in their helmets the front lines hold the line," wrote John Mills Hanson, and to the boys who were "over there" no other flower could be more symbolic of our honored heroes.

AMAZING NEW DISCOVERY

SOAP AND DEODORANT COMBINED

No More Body Odor

At last there is a simple new way to banish perspiration odors easily and quickly—without dangerous chemicals! The purest and finest of toilet soaps has been combined with a medicinal extract which has the marvelous power of dissolving, removing and preventing all perspiration and body odors instantly.

A single washing prevents odors for at least 24 hours no matter how much perspiration is poured on. In fact, in 5000 tests made, including Marathon Racers and Tennis players, it was found that there was no body odor for hours of strenuous exertion. And it leaves no odor of its own. Chex removes the cause, does not injure or stain clothing. And is so beneficial to skin that physicians recommend it to keep babies clean and sweet.

Put up in soap-like cakes (2 in a box) under name "CHEX." Far cheaper than many so-called deodorants. Takes place of both deodorant and soap. We will send you more if you don't decide that CHEX is the finest toilet soap you have ever used. Manufactured by Finner Products Co., Dayton, Ohio, Geo. Rongfield & Co., Sole Distributors, 11-119 East 14th Street, New York, N. Y.

JOHN SULLIVAN TELLS HOW HE WON FIGHT

Indigestion Had Upper Hand
Until He Got Tanlac On His Side. Feels Like New Man Now.

JOHN J. SULLIVAN

"Getting rid of stomach trouble after 3 or 4 years of misery is certainly something to be thankful for and I just can't praise Tanlac too highly for fixing me up so I can eat and not suffer afterwards," is the statement of John J. Sullivan, 71 Carver St., Boston, Mass.

"Indigestion, gas bloating and stomach pains caused me almost unbearable suffering. Constipation, headaches, dizzy spells and loss of sleep helped to pull me down until I had no energy and felt tired out all the time. COOLIDGE "THE PLATFORM"

What the republican party most needs is a platform for the coming campaign and this is the very thing most difficult to obtain in view of the long list of failures scored by the party as a whole. Four years ago, the republican national committee advertised for ideas for a platform that would catch votes, somewhat after the manner in which the sticky paper catches flies and with analogous result. The record of the party in congress is certainly not such as would draw support from the masses who have suffered from dull business or from any other class—not even the beneficiaries of the republican tariff.

The Boston Herald appropriates of the dispute over the platform for the Cleveland convention suggests a platform of ten words as follows:

"Our candidate is our platform. To say more is unnecessary."

That is what stirs the resentment of such men as Senator Lodge and others who for years have been prominent in shaping the destinies of the party and who feel in a measure responsible for the fulfillment of its pledges to the service men and the people in general. Being comparatively a newcomer in the higher councils of the party and considering only the conditions confronting him as affecting his own candidacy, the president naturally follows certain policies in many respects at variance with those of the time honored leaders of the party. This has been accentuated by the fight over the bonus and the tax reduction measures and perhaps one or two others.

It has become glaringly apparent that the president has set out to be not only the party candidate, but in his individual policies to be better than his party and therefore, also its only platform. The other leaders naturally resent this assumption of dictatorial power within the party. That policy met a rebuff on the bonus and it will meet others equally severe if not speedily reversed. The disintegration of the party goes steadily on, and it remains to be seen whether the Cleveland convention will close up its broken ranks and put it in trim for the coming battle.

TAX CUT AND THE BONUS

There is a great howl among republicans against Senator Lodge for having voted for the soldiers' bonus, although the parties who are conducting that campaign, would have had a lot of explaining to do, had congress failed to pass the bonus over the president's veto. The bonus had been promised by the party leaders and for these promises Senator Lodge felt responsible, but undoubtedly the president felt otherwise. He was guided by the advice of Secretary Mellon on the taxation issue, but now that the bill has been passed, he finds that Mellon's counsel during the fight was misleading, inasmuch as an actuary shows that the secretary's statements were incorrect and that the present bill will not only not bring a deficit as alleged, but will amply take care of the bonus payment in 1925 in addition to making a 25 per cent. reduction on the income taxes for 1924.

Thus it is quite probable that the president will sign the tax bill as submitted. He has already found ample reason for reversing the stand he took when he said he would not sign any tax reduction bill that differed materially from that offered by Secretary Mellon. The fact is, that the secretary's bill was one-sided, sectional and designed to benefit only a particular class.

Judging from the unanimity with which the tax bill was passed by both branches of congress, it is very evident that should it be vetoed by the president it will be passed over the veto quite as promptly as was the bonus bill. It was adopted in the house by a vote of 376 to 5 and in the senate by 60 to 6. These 436 members have voted for the bill, while only 15 have opposed it. It is not likely that any considerable number of those who voted for the bill would support the presidential veto. It is, therefore, practically certain that the tax bill will become law in its present form. Rep. Green, republican, assured the house on the authority of a treasury actuary that the bill would bring a sufficient surplus for the year 1924 to pay the bonus twice over and that the figures for 1925 would show a surplus of $128,000,000, exclusive of the bonus which can be taken care of out of the previous surplus. That statement rather discredits the various views put forward on the authority of Secretary Mellon.

THE CLOTH TARIFF PROBLEM

Conditions relating to the dumping of English cotton goods in this country have already been brought to the attention of the tariff commission at Washington by the New Bedford Textile Workers' association, by the formal filing of an application for an increase in duties on imported cotton cloth. This application has been referred to the usual way to the advisory board of the commission which has it under consideration at the present time.

Will the tariff commission be so strictly impartial that it will not take into account the fact that the dumping of cheap cotton goods in this country is a serious problem for the textile workers?

It appears that there is still good reason for complaint because of the small number of persons named to the commission and that they will not get until the summer session of the commission a report on the matter. The action of the tariff commission is a matter of public interest and it is to be hoped that it will be followed and early decision cannot be expected.

Although the tariff bill, as enacted, has been on the statute books for a year and a half, only one executive order has been issued. That was in the case of wheat and flour, an intervention some practically pushed through in four or five months because of the political considerations involved.

The commission ordered a considerable number of investigations in March, 1923, but in only one case—that of soda ash—has a final report gone to the White House. Hearings have been conducted in other cases, but no action has been taken within the tariff commission have developed action individually.

Under ordinary procedures, an investigation is ordered and field workers are then sent to factories to ascertain production costs. Public hearings

A Thought

Let us be merciful as well as just.—Longfellow.

Still Believed It

"You used to say you thought heaven sent me to you," said the young man, tearfully, during their first quarrel. "And I say so still." "Really?" she exclaimed, delighted. "Yes," he added, coldly, "as a punishment."

What an Excuse!

As soon as she heard her husband insert his key in the door she rushed out into the hall to meet him. "May I have the telephone?" she asked. "No," he said. "She told me that you had spoken to her most rudely over the telephone." "Good heavens, my dear," answered the husband, "I thought I was speaking to you!"

Scientific Research

Two students were waiting to see a bachelor professor, who said word he would give them an interview as soon as he found his glasses. "The professor is very methodical," said one, "How so?" "I have been here before when he was hunting for his glasses. He starts with the parlor and combs every room lock by lock. And as he finishes combing the room he locks it. That's what you call scientific research."

Youthful Mechanicisms

"It's surprising," said Bill Henry of the Auto Club, "how many people are still ignorant concerning motor vehicles, and this applies to the few who drive them as well as to the few who desire them left among us. Only a day or so ago I heard a woman living across a block away from me call out, 'What's the delay, why don't we start?' 'Is that one of the cylinders missing?' piped a little small son, to which his mother replied: 'Well, you children get to work and help him find it, or we'll never get to Santa Barbara today.'—Los Angeles Times.

Why He Selected Motto

The man walked into a sign painting establishment and asked: "Can you fix up a sort of placard or house motto for me?" "Certainly," said the painter. "But a border around it and beautify it a little?" "We can do all that," the proprietor assured him. "Make it as pretty as you like." "What is the wording to be?" "It's a quotation from Shakespeare. You remember Tuck says: 'Put a garland around the earth in 40 minutes.' Soaring that the sign painter looked puzzled, he added: "I want it as a gentle reminder to place on my wife's dressing table."—Louisville Courier-Journal.

Hooping For the Best

"Germany as a country, the Germans as a people, are essentially all right," said Senator Lodge. "It was the government and the military mechanism of the government that were wrong and which the world fought and destroyed. It left Germany sick—very sick, indeed, but she will be all right before long. The situation in Germany reminds me of little Dorothy. Her father was ill and a quarantine sign was put on the house and little Dorothy went to stay with a neighbor. At the end of a week, a friend of the family asked her whether she liked her new home, to which Dorothy replied: 'Oh, yes, I like it, but I'll be glad when our own house gets well.'—Raleigh Herald.

The Meeting of the Waters

There is not in the wide world a valley so sweet as this valley in whose bosom the bright waters meet. Oh! the last rays of evening and life must depart. Ere the bloom of that valley shall fade from my heart.

Yet it was not that nature had shed after the scene. Her purest and brightest of green.

'Twas not the soft magic of streamlet or bell. Fine things, something more exquisite still.

'Twas that friends, the beloved of my soul were near. Who made every dear scene of enchantment more dear. And who felt how the best charms of nature improve When we see them reflected from looks that we love.

Sweet vale of Avenel! how calm could I rest In thy bosom of shade with the friends I love best.

Where the storm that we feel in this cold world should cease. And our hearts, like thy waters, be mingled in peace.

THOMAS MOORE.

MAN ABOUT TOWN

Mauro Rippon, a burlier friend of mine, feels rather happy this month. In May comes the birthday of his wife, his daughter and his son. Besides being a clever (sonorial) artist, Mauro Rippon has entered the musical composition field, and is the author of several songs and marches.

At the commencement exercises of Colgate university, Hamilton, N. Y., on June 14, Donald Ferdinand Perron of 13th street, this city, will be numbered among the graduates. The list of speakers at the Colgate commencement are worth notice here. They will be: Hon. Percy A. Fox, of Hartford, Conn., inventor of the Maxim Silencer and president of the American Radio Relay League, Glen and Washington Child, formerly Ambassador Extraordinary and Plenipotentiary to Italy and official observer for the United States at the Council of the League of Nations, and George Barton Cutler, Ph.D., LL.D., LL.M., president of Colgate.

Traffic Officer Daniel Brennan has returned to his duty after a two weeks' vacation. Officer Brennan was the first of the traffic men to be off this year, but Dan does not reveal in the distinction. Out of his 14 days leave of absence it rained nine or ten, and the remaining days were nothing to brag about atmospherically. Dan likes Acting Supervisor Eddie Conner, his old boss. When the men were drawing for vacations, Dan could not be present, so he requested Eddie to draw for him. Eddie drew the two weeks just past and Dan considers that he was "out of luck."

Out of patriotic respect to the country's heroic dead, all flags should be raised for Memorial day. Looking out from the tenth story of the Sun building today, the only flag that was raised was that on the new high school building. It is perhaps the only building in the city where old glory waves continuously.

Parishioners of St. Michael's church were grieved to hear of the passing of Miss Lucy Sheridan, for 24 years housekeeper for the priests of the parish. Those who knew her, and practically every parishioner did, will remember her as a woman of high ideals and deep piety. Rev. John H. Healey, O.F.M., director of the mission in that parish last week, paid her a high tribute when he said she was a "mother" to the priests, and a woman whose plans will not readily be filled.

LOWELL BOY CHOSEN TO LEAD ORCHESTRA

Mr. Kenneth Austin Corlew, of Brown university, class of '26, and younger son of Mrs. Rufus E. Corlew, the city, has just received the unanimous election to the leadership of the Brown university orchestra, recognized as the best undergraduate orchestra in the country. His brother, Rufus E., plays trombone in the same organization. He is 18 years of age and as a lad used frequently to conduct the Middlesex county Training School band when his late father, Rufus E. Corlew, was superintendent of that institution.

NO SCHOOLHOUSE FOR FORGE VILLAGE

Westford citizens, in town meeting assembled Monday evening, defeated a proposition calling for the borrowing of $80,000 for the construction of a schoolhouse at Forge Village. That vote was 163 to 126. It requires a two-thirds ballot to allow the town to borrow money outside its debt limit.

The voters declared in favor of including the names of veterans of all wars on the $6900 soldiers' memorial, to be erected on or near the town common.

Westford band concerts, always a great attraction in the summer months and a rallying point for thousands of automobilists and residents from surrounding hamlets, will be conducted no longer. The voters refused on Monday evening to appropriate the sum of $350 required for the continuance of the popular concerts that placed Westford down on the summer band concert map.

FAREWELL TO NANCY

Ac fond kiss and then we sever!
Ac farewell, and then we sever!
Deep in heart-wrung tears I'll pledge thee;
Warring sighs and groans I'll wage thee.
Who shall say that Fortune grieves him,
While the star of hope she leaves him?
Me, nae cheerful twinkle lights me;
Dark despair around benights me.

I'll ne'er blame my partial fancy—
Naething could resist my Nancy;
But to see her was to love her;
Love but her and love for ever.
Had we never loved sac kindly,
Had we never loved sac blindly,
Never met—or never parted,
We had ne'er been broken-hearted.

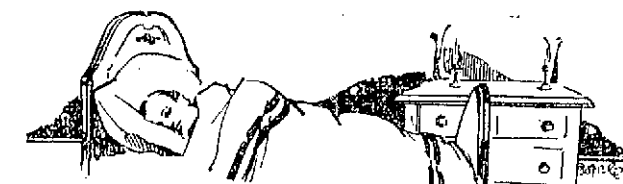

Fare thee weel, thou first and fairest!
Fare thee weel, thou best and dearest!
Thine be ilka joy and treasure,
Peace, enjoyment, love, and pleasure!

Ac fond kiss, and then we sever!
Ac farewell, alas! for ever!
Deep in heart-wrung tears I'll pledge thee;
Warring sighs and groans I'll wage thee.

The TURN-OVER

It may be right nice to wake up in the morn just after your slumber's been deep, but the niceness about it, as sure as you're born, is to wake—and then fall back to sleep.
A beautiful sight is the break of dawn and a thriller to all folks, it seems. But the thrill is much nicer if you can just yawn, and shortly fall back into dreams.
It may be the twitter of birds, understand, or the morning noise out on the street that wakes you, but honestly, isn't it grand to snuggle back under the sheet?
There's something that's fine in the early morn stretch and, though you may know you should rise, it's greater if you can just leisurely catch a little more rest for your eyes.
It's nice to figet up, and it's nice to get out in the air, when it's all done and said, but it's nicer to me, and I think you'll agree, if you just run turn over in bed.

Operation Advised, but Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound Made It Unnecessary

Glasgow, Kentucky.—"I was run-down, nervous, with no appetite. My side had given me trouble for five or six years. At times it was all I could do to live, and the doctor said I couldn't live but a short time longer without an operation. That was two years ago. My sister-in-law recommended Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound. She had never used it herself, but she said one of her neighbors suffered just like I did, and it cured her. After I had taken four bottles the pain left my side. I had a fine appetite to eat anything that was put before me, and I began to do all my work and my washing, something I hadn't done for years. I am a dressmaker, and this last fall I began suffering with my side again, so I began taking the Vegetable Compound again. I am on my fourth bottle, which makes eight in all I have taken. I feel so much better when I take it and everybody tells me I look better. My appetite improves and I feel stronger in every way. I am a very nervous woman and it seems to help my nerves so much." GIVEN BIG RECEPTION

Two Lowell Girls Appear in Support of Fine Program at Providence

Two young local musicians just entering the concert field were given a splendid reception Sunday evening in Providence, R. I., where they appeared in support of a fine program given by Emmett O'Toole, eminent Irish tenor of New York. The artists were Miss Marie J. C. O'Donnell, organist at St. Anthony's church here, and Miss Kathleen Jennings of 80, Whipple st.

The program featured songs of Ireland and provided one of the most pleasing entertainments given in the Rhode Island capital during the current concert season. Critics were pleased with the offerings of the Lowell young women and were loud-spoken in their praise. Miss Jennings is possessed of a robust voice of excellent range and a personality that at once magnetizes her with her audience. Her enunciation was clear and the catchy, fitting numbers which she offered were encored time and again. She is endowed with a richness of voice tone and a marvelous range that have no doubt in the minds of her auditors but that she will some day prove one of the most noted of our concert favorites.

In the playing of Miss O'Donnell, who acted as accompanist for Miss Jennings in all of her numbers and for Mr. Moore in some of his numbers, there was manifested the faultless basic training given by her renowned tutor, Vincent O'Brien of Dublin. Miss O'Donnell played flawlessly with a sympathy and depth of understanding that made her offerings all the more meritorious. Her sweet, unassuming grace and stage poise, added to her clever playing, won for her at once the esteem and admiration of all who were privileged to hear her.

Both of the artists from Lowell were cordially received and would be welcomed to Providence by music lovers at any time they elect to return. The excellent support which they gave made the Emmett O'Toole program one that will long be cherished in the memory of the lovers of Irish music in the Rhode Island metropolis.

Among the offerings by Miss Jennings which made an exceptional appeal were "Elin's Isle," "This Sorrow," "The Young Days Shaded," "Sweet Little Maid," and "In Butterfield, Time," as well as "Ave Maria," "Ave Maria," and "Piano Amabile."

WIRELESS COMMUNICATION

North American Operators Show Lack of Interest in Attempt to Establish Displeased with South American

BUENOS AIRES, May 28.—Attempts to establish wireless communication between amateurs of both Americas, have not met with all the desired success due to the lack of interest shown by the operators in the United States and Canada, according to the Revista Radio-Argentina. It says this is shown by the fact that many North Americans are heard here in communication with each other, but that few address South American stations.

M. E. CONFERENCE IS DRAWING TO CLOSE

SPRINGFIELD, May 28.—The Methodist Episcopal quadrennial conference will draw toward a close today. Adjournment has been set for tomorrow noon at the latest and if business is done rapidly today, the delegates may end their four weeks' labors tonight.

Confirming yesterday a modification of the "amusement ban" and the assignment of bishops for the coming quadrennium, the delegates have now completed the most pressing matters of the conference. A report of the judiciary committee denying the constitutional validity of limiting the life tenure of the bishops will be presented today. It is expected to meet with little opposition, although a minority report of an opposite opinion will be presented with it. A report on industrial relations, recommended by the committee on the state of the church, also remains to be considered.

Many delegates left the city last night, and the exodus will continue through today and tomorrow.

Braves Win Double Header — Giants Increase Lead as Pirates Defeat Cubs

Carpentier Says He is Heavier and Better Than When He Fought Dempsey

By JOE WILLIAMS
MICHIGAN CITY, Ind., May 27.—The Georges Carpentier who is here to fight Tommy Gibbons, best of the American light heavyweights, is well conditioned, finely trained, and to all outer appearances, ready for the struggle of his young aristocratic existence.

I watched him do his real stuff today against a miscellaneous assortment of sparring partners that included the veteran featherweight, Charley Ledoux, and Paul Fitch, lightweight champion of Europe.

Carpentier has lifted out noticeably in the region of the chest and shoulders and is generally more robust in appearance.

"You are heavier than when you fought Dempsey," I suggested as he lay on the rubber's table in his dressing room after the workout.

"And better," he added, with a ring of confidence that in no wise suggested arrogance.

It is evident that Carpentier's successive defeats at the hands of Dempsey and Sikki have not curbed his innate optimism. He admits frankly now that he isn't Dempsey's class.

Don't Ask Them About Moss, Sikki

The Sikki debacle is something that is not discussed at any great length either by the Frenchman or his valuable manager, Deschamps.

You ask, "What about this Sikki guy?" and Carpentier and Deschamps shrug their shoulders in unison and answer, "Oh, that buffoon."

Your sense of discretion, if any, persuades you to drop the subject.

You make mental note, however, that all traces of the cruel punishment which the black man administered to the "world of France" have disappeared, and that he is still the handsome brute who knocked the American "dum" dizzy three years ago.

But that is an incidental matter. Is Carpentier really as good as he looks in training, is he better than when he fought Dempsey, as he says?

Well, it's a cinch he isn't any bad.

GEORGES CARPENTIER

TOMMY GIBBONS

ter. You don't get better in the fight came after you reach 30 years of age, and the weight you take on this late in life is not the kind of weight that does you any good in the ring.

Carpentier May Be Just a Shell
Carpentier undoubtedly takes the

Gibbons fight seriously and has trained conscientiously. This probably explains why he looks so well outwardly.

But what about the condition of his interior? Jeffries looked great physically at Reno 11 years ago, but the first punch Johnson landed to the stomach showed that the boiler maker was little more than a shell. Kibbore trained hardest and looked best for his night with Criqui and was knocked out.

A trim, well-muscled body is not always a positive indication of physical perfection. Carpentier likes his wine, his cigars and his moments of nocturnal safety.

This kind of a life cuts deeply into a man's stamina and vitality, and there is nothing about the apparently well-conditioned Frenchman to indicate that he is an exception.

LOWLY PHILLIES DROP TWO GAMES TO BRAVES—GIBSON STARS

Giants Idle by Rain Increase Lead When Pirates Defeat Cubs in 10-Inning Battle—Pitcher Cole Wins His First Game of Season for Detroit

NEW YORK, May 28.—The Giants are half a game further ahead of the close trailing Cubs today. They owe it partly to the weather, because rain kept them idle yesterday, while the Chicago National outfit was getting along by the Pirates, in a 10-inning battle, 5 to 4. Chicago tied the score in the ninth with a two-run rally, off Krummer. He retired in favor of Morrison, who blanked the Cubs for the remaining one and two-thirds innings.

The low-scoring Phillies, with still lower, when Boston captured both sides of a double-header, 5 to 4, and 10 to 6. In the first game the Phillies made a desperate state at victory in the eighth with a three-run rally, which tied the score. The ninth was blank on both sides, but Boston squeezed in the winning run in the tenth with two out. In the second game, the Braves held the lead throughout, Gibson, substituting for Metz at first, starred at bat and in the field. Cincinnati and St. Louis split a double-header, the Reds losing the first 4 to 3, and winning the second, 3 to 1. Cooney's double with Gonzales on second gave the Cardinals the winning run in the opener after the Reds had tied the score with a three-run rally in the same frame. In the second game, Cincinnati led at the way.

In the American league, George Lusk outpitched three Chicago pitchers, and won for Cleveland, 7 to 2, while in Detroit, Bert Cole won his first game of the season by holding St. Louis to three scattered hits, until the ninth and winning 5 to 1, thereby easing the Browns out of third place.

Brooklyn was idle with the Giants in New York, while in the American rain kept the Yankees and Senators from the Red Sox and Athletics in their quarters.

SPORTS OF ALL SORTS

The Lisbon club athletic committee, John Souza, chairman, is receiving congratulations on all sides for its success in reviving interest in amateur boxing.

The Lisbon have conducted three amateur tournaments this season, all of which scored successfully. Some of the best talent in New England was brought here to perform and all shows were conducted and run off with systematic dispatch.

The last tournament provided a most entertaining local innovation—the presentation of a heavyweight class. Four men, including the holder of the New England title, competed, and their bouts were real handbouts. Champion Rocky Snow was rocked and socked by Jack Johnson of Quincy for three rounds with the latter getting the award. Johnson then made his evening perfect by defeating Knutberg. In the finals, Johnson's victory over Snow gave him great satisfaction. The pair have been rivals for several years. Previous to the local bout they had fought three times, with Snow scoring two knockouts and winning two decisions. Hence the colored boy had good reason to show his ivory in recognition of the award of the judges.

Thus Anderson again won the honors in the 125-pound class. This lucky youngster created a sensation at the second Lisbon show when he won over Red O'Grady. He continued his good work Monday night, landing the final in his class after a hard-fought battle with Billy Wallace. This bout was the last number of the evening and it proved a real main event battle.

Joe Perry of Lowell, who defeated Billy Chesteridge of Lowell, in the 118-pound class, looks like a corner. He's fast, crafty and hits like a mule. He ought to be heard from later.

Young Patash of Lowell, who landed the "kick" in the 105-pound class, is an aggressive, courageous battler, who carries the battle to his opponent and keeps pumping punches like a machine. He met with opposition but succeeded in eliminating all in his class.

In the "human virology class," Ben Kennedy of Lawrence carried off the honors. Lowell's champion, who has been in the Murphy-Paluso bout, according to word from his manager, Leo Flynn, has a bad eye, hence his withdrawal. But fans may take some consolation in the knowledge that Paluso's contract is locked up. The Murphy-Paluso bout, which was scheduled for tomorrow night, will be held in Massachusetts until he fulfills his obligations in Lowell. Frankie Rossi of Wales has been secured to replace Paluso and hence the bouts will go on.

ROSSI TO BOX MURPHY

Welshman Signed to Replace Paluso in Moody Club Main Event

After burning up the wires since hearing yesterday of Lew Paluso's withdrawal from his bout with Billy Murphy scheduled for tomorrow night, Natchanuker Doherty of the Moody club got in touch with Billy Ames, noted English manager and promoter now in America with a stable of boxers, and succeeded in getting Frankie Rossi, from Wales, to agree to terms.

Hence fight fans will have an opportunity to enjoy their favorite sport tomorrow night, with Murphy and Rossi in the main event scheduled for ten rounds. Rossi has been in this country but a short time, but according to word from the Moody club he is a regular fighter and has decisions over Mickey Landers and Remond-Roach to his credit.

Ames, manager of Rossi, is one of the most celebrated managers in the world, a man who is known to handle only the best. In his stable now in this country in addition to Rossi are Frank Moody, sensational middleweight, Ted Merchant, Britain's best lightweight who knocked out George K. O. Chaney, and the Median, bantam champion of Scotland. Ames informed the local matchmaker that Rossi is in the class with the others, being considered the best featherweight developed in Wales in recent years.

The other numbers on the card are determined effort to win the open championship of America this summer. The event will be held over the Oakland Hills course in the Detroit district, and Boston plans to spend three weeks there practicing.

M'LEOD'S 72 BEST CARD

Led Field of 160 in First Day of National Open Qualifying Play

WORCESTER, May 28 (By the Associated Press).—The field of eastern golf stars seeking places in the selected list that will battle at Detroit next week for the 1924 national open golf championship, swung their way into the final 18 holes of the 26-hole sectional qualifying test over the links of the Worcester Country club.

Hence today's results, the 41 leaders, together with last place ties, will step forth to match nibblers in the 72-hole championship test with a similarly selected western contingent of its qualification and these at 18 holes. Today Jones, golfing Atlanta amateur, who has stood on the side lines during the preliminaries, with defend his open title against this picked galaxy.

Setting the pace in the final qualifying drive here was Freddie McLeod, veteran Washington (D. C.) professional holder of the open championship in 1908, who led a field of 160 yesterday with 72, one over par on this difficult course, which added by snarls and a half, gave chance to practically wreck the chances of a majority of aspirants.

McLeod's lead, however, was slim, for Johnny Farrell, veteran home bird star of the Tucker Rules club, Tuckahoe, N. Y., was on the veteran's heels with 73, while four others were hooked at 74, with a total of 44 contenders under 80. Today's fight was postponed to rest in the efforts of this array to resist the attempts of those at 80 or above, to rally and break into lower figures.

GAME FORFEITED TO THE CENTRALVILLES
The Centralvilles of the Lowell Twilight League appeared on the common last night for their scheduled game with the Y.M.C.A., but the latter failed to show up and the game was forfeited to the Centralvilles by the usual 2 to 0 score.

TWILIGHT LEAGUE GAME THIS EVENING

The City Twilight League attraction on the South common this evening will be the Redwings and the Butler Independents. The game will start at 6:15 sharp with Orrie Allen umpiring behind the bat and Buster Curtis on the bases. Both teams are very fast and capable of putting up a real brand of ball for the appreciation of the fans.

The new uniforms for the players of Marle's Americans, supplied by John Peters, proprietor of Marle's restaurant, arrived last night and will be put into use the next time the Americans play. The uniforms are a snappy number.

ANNUAL MARATHON MEMORIAL DAY

The annual Lawrence-Lowell marathon will be held on May 30, under the auspices of the Crescent Athletic club. The course will be from Lawrence, Essex, Lowell to the bankhead, to First street, Bridge, Merrimack, Central, Graham, Appleton, to the South common where the runners will do three turns around the cinder track.

The race will start at 12:30 noon, and among the entries will be the following: Christy Rhoddy, James Cote, Geo. Couture, Raymond Hill, Fred Couture, Joe Hickey, James Cronin, Thomas Gault, George Gaudard, David Brown, Frank Howard, Wood, Albert Co., David Perault and Willis J. Peltier have donated prizes for the race.

RICARD'S BELMONT'S TO PLAY IN BOSTON

Ricard's Belmonts will go to Boston Friday, May 30, to meet the Checker Test team of the Hubs. The game will be played on the Boston common at 3 o'clock sharp. The Belmonts would like to have it understood that Lawrence, youthful winner of the team, is also captain. This youngster is having a great year and his work is being commented upon favorably by City Twilight League. He will carry a check book and will select his team from the following Belmont players: Carr, Krouse, Eacker, Garb, Willard, Atkinson, Harry Wood, Melchior, Lunder, Perry, McRae, Gagnon, Conway, Lawless, Conditte and Terpenburg. Trucks will leave Lincoln park at 1:30 sharp and a large delegation of local pointers will accompany the team to Boston.

SEVERE BLOW FOR LOWELL HIGH TEAM

Lowell high's baseball team is forced to swallow a bitter pill with the announcement that Henry Gibson, premier pitcher, will be out of the game for the remainder of the season because of a fractured ankle. The injury occurred as Gibson was playing right field in the game against Nashua high last Monday. The mishap leaves the heads to finish out the season with only 16 left. Gibson is only on this boy's friends, however, are counting on him to deliver the goods in the remaining games of the schedule.

GAMES SCHEDULED FOR THIS EVENING

At Grantville this evening, the Abbot Warriors will play St. Anne's team in a Greater Boston Twilight League game, while at North Chelmsford, Sheldahl mills will line up against Chapple Johnson's All-Stars. Both games are to be corkers.

JOHNNY DUNDEE MEETS LUIS VICENTINI

NEW YORK, May 28.—Johnny Dundee meets Luis Vicentini, champion "Chien" lightweight, at the Vendome tonight, but Johnny's featherweight crown will be left at home in its cotton batting. According to some dopesters, this is just as well, although Dundee enters the ring the favorite.

The Chicago box had five contests since coming to this country, and has won four, three of them by knockout. The fifth he lost to Johnny Shugrue on points. Both men are said to be under weight for the bout. The articles stipulate 155 pounds.

LUCK PLAYS BIG PART IN GOLF, SAYS WILLIAMS

By JOE WILLIAMS
Few golfers ever reach the purple heights without an encouraging smile from the gods of luck. Not that golf is a game where luck always decides the important issues, but it often seems that sheer skill is not quite enough.

No one played better golf than Max Marston in the national amateur at Nassau in last summer, no one was more deserving of victory, and yet it is doubtful if the Philadelphia would have won if the "break" hadn't been in his favor.

The breaks fell Marston's way at a critical moment when defeat and disaster, like twin horrors, loomed an arm's length away.

It was in the semi-finals, Francis Outmet of Boston was his opponent. Outmet had been 4 down at the excellent hole in the morning. Later he found himself and gained steadily. At the twelfth hole in the afternoon he had squared the match.

The thirteenth at Nassau is a one-shot hole to a cupped green, completely trapped. Outmet drove the longer ball. It came down like a pounced egg not more than 15 inches from the pin. Almost a hole in one. Marston hit his shot too robustly.

The green was fringed with spectators. The ball struck one of them and dropped on the green. If the ball hadn't hit a spectator it would have gone on into a trap, out of which Marston would have had to play a safety shot.

As matters stood he was still on the green, though 40 feet from the hole. That lucky break was a stimulant. Marston proceeded to shock the gallery by sinking the long putt for a birdie two.

The effect the lucky break, plus the successful putt, had on Outmet is hard to describe.

TO CHOOSE CHALLENGER FOR LEONARD'S TITLE

NEW YORK, May 28.—A challenger for Benny Leonard's lightweight crown will be chosen by an elimination tournament in July, details of which will be arranged by a committee which starts work today. The committee appointed by the state athletic commission consists of Tex Rickard and Madison Square Garden, Chick Anderson of the Nostand A.C., James J. Johnston of the Queensboro A.C., John J. Johnston of the National Sports Alliance, and Charles Brierley of the Pioneer A.C.

The commission yesterday picked Louis (Kid) Kaplan of Meriden, Conn., as the most logical challenger for Johnny Dundee's featherweight, supplanting Johnny Leonard of Allentown, Pa., who was previously chosen. Leonard's defeat at the hands of Tony Vaccaro, last Tuesday, accounted for the change.

Watchers are sometimes seriously affected by the magnetism of their wearers.

AMATEUR IS DEFENDER TO REPRESENT U. S. IN RIFLE COMPETITION

BY JOE WILLIAMS

For the fourth time in the history of the event an amateur will be the defending champion in the open rifle competition at Detroit next month.

Francis Outmet was the first amateur to win the American open. The Boston boy won in 1913 after a play-off with Gordon and Ray, noted riflemen, who had tied with the caddy graduate the day before with 304.

Outmet shot a brilliant 72 to win, easily outstriking his more mature opponents, Varion with a 77 and Ray with a 78. As the defending champion the following year Outmet was fourth with 295, and second among the amateurs, Chick Evans finishing with 291, a stroke behind Hagen, the winner.

The second amateur to win the open was Jerry Travers who came through in 1916, winning by a stroke from Tom McNamara. The Upper Mountaineer player was only casually interested in the defense of his title and it moved over to another amateur, Chick Evans of Chicago.

Evans made history in that event with four rounds of 70, 65, 74 and 73, for a total of 282, the lowest figure by which the open championship has ever been won in America.

There were no championships during the war years and when competitive play was resumed in 1919 Evans, as the defender, led the amateurs but was ninth on the list from the top. Hagen, for the second time was the victor, winning after a playoff with Mike Brady.

Now comes Bobby Jones as the fourth amateur to defend the open title. The Atlanta star has somewhat of an edge on his predecessors in that he does not have to qualify. That relieves him of a bit of mental concern and saves his energy.

The traditions of the game and odds of the sport are all against Jones repeating. No player has repeated in the open since 1912 when Johnny McDermott scored his second consecutive win.

Nevertheless Jones is as good a bet as any individual in the field. There is no better medal play golfer in the world, he has the stamina to go the route and the courage to master any kind of a crisis. You don't need much more.

NEW YORK, May 28.—Five Washington marksmen are in the squad of 12 which will represent the United States in the international rifle competition and the Olympic matches in France, next month, sailing today on the President Harding. They are Gunner Sergeant Morris Fisher of the Marine Corps, present individual champion of the world; Corporal J. W. Crockett and Private Marcus Dayville of the District of Columbia National Guard; Walter R. Stokes, who was world champion in 1922 and 1923, and his brother, Ralph C. Stokes.

Upon his arrival in France, the team will immediately enter the international rifle competitions, which start June 7 at Charleville, and afterwards will fire in the Olympic matches at Rheims and Versailles. The squad is generally regarded as the strongest that ever has represented the United States in international rifle contests.

ADDITIONAL ENTRIES FOR AMERICAN HENLEY

PHILADELPHIA, May 28.—Additional entries for the American Henley to be rowed on the Schuylkill river on Saturday were announced today. Among them were Walter M. Hoover, former diamond sculls champion, and Granville Gude of the Potomac Boat Club, Washington, D. C., who will compete in the first single sculls race against Paul Costello, winner of the Philadelphia gold challenge cup on Monday. William E. Garrett, Gilmore club, Boston, other late entries include Crooks, also of the Union Boat Club, and Melville, of the Penn. A.C., in the second single sculls event.

Announcement also was made that the first eight-oared shells event for the stewards' challenge cup would be rowed in one heat with Pennsylvania, Princeton, Columbia, Syracuse and the Navy, as the contestants, and that the winner of the Childs cup would be determined in this race.

Only Princeton, Columbia and Pennsylvania are eligible for the Childs cup, which was presented in 1875 by the late George W. Childs for annual competition among these three institutions.

EXPECT GIBBONS TO FIGHT AT CLOSE RANGE

MICHIGAN CITY, Ind., May 28 (by the Associated Press).—Tommy Gibbons, St. Paul light heavyweight, today started the tapering off process of his training for his 10-round contest with Georges Carpentier here next Saturday while his French opponent, satisfied that he is conditioned to the minute, planned to loaf, taking his final workout tomorrow.

Gibbons is working methodically and plans to continue boxing probably until Friday afternoon. He boxed four opponents yesterday, taking them on for two rounds apiece, but his only real workout was with Tillie Kid Herman, an aggressive 145-pounder.

Gibbons gave the impression in his boxing with Herman that he intends to fight Carpentier at close range.

BILLERICA HIGH TOO FAST TO HALT

Howe High of Billerica was much too fast for Chelmsford High in a closely played game at North Billerica yesterday, winning by 8 to 2. The Billerica boys made a good start in the opening stanza when Weekstrom, their twirler, connected for a triple with two men on. The home team was never headed off and had a field day with the visitors, making thirteen safeties. The fielding was not so good, four errors being charged against the winners and three against the Chelmsford team. Score by innings: Howe High 8 0 2 0 0 4 0 0—5; Chelmsford 0 0 0 0 0 1 0 0—2.

HIGH SCHOOL TEAM WINS DEBATE

The high school sophomore debating team won the decision over St. Joseph's school debating team last night in Coburn hall, the subject of the debate being, "Resolved: That the United States should own and operate the railroads."

The high school team, consisting of Edward O'Sullivan, Gerald Quigley, and James Lindquist, with Duncan Maclean as alternate, upheld the affirmative. The St. Joseph's team consisted of Armand Desrosiers, Arthur Leblanc and Minos Generales, with Orla Bourgeois as alternate.

Both teams presented their arguments in a masterly way and showed conclusively that considerable time and effort had been spent in preparation for the debate. A great deal of credit for the showing of the team goes to Brother Jeanne, who coached St. Joseph's, and Amos Fleming, president of the Greenhedge Debating society of the high school, who coached the sophomore team.

Alphonse J. Achin, prominent among the debaters of the Greenhedge society and president of the high school, was chairman of the evening and the judges were Arthur L. Eno, Samuel H. Thompson and Hiram G. Hill. Prior to the debate and during the intermission arranged for the preparation of rebuttals, the high school orchestra, under the direction of Frederick O. Blunt, entertained with a number of selections.

Jack Daw's Adventures. Chapter 5

In a few minutes a small road and a very funny looking sweater were brought forth from a trunk. Jack held Flip while the clowns put these things on him. Then another clown brought out a little high silk hat. A rubber band was attached to it and it was slipped on Flip's head.

Jack had never seen his dog look so funny before. Flip, of course, tried to get the hat off. He pawed at it until Jack patted him and told him to leave the hat alone. Then Flip barked and seemed to realize that he was now a curious clown and was supposed to look funny.

Suddenly a trumpet blared forth and the clowns all ran out of the little dressing tent. "Come on, sonny," said one of them. "Bring your dog, too. We are going into the big tent now and make the little children laugh." So Flip and Jack ran along after the clowns. (Continued.)

ADVENTURES OF THE TWINS

by Olive Roberts Barton

"WHY, MISTER BAGS, THE CRACKER BARREL IS EMPTY!"

Mister Bags' store in the woods was a great place for all the neighborhood folk to meet and gossip. One day Old Daddy Cracknuts came in and asked the price of a new kind of smoking tobacco, and Mister Bunnys came in to use the telephone, and old Ringtail Coon was passing and looked in to wish Mister Bags the time of day.

And so it went until there was quite a party. "It looks like rain," said Mister Bunnys wisely, when he had finished talking on the telephone and said, "Much obliged," to Mister Bags, the fairman storekeeper.

Everybody considered this a moment. "What do you think, Mister Groundhog?" asked Ringtail Coon. "You're our oldest inhabitant." And of course, being the oldest inhabitant, he was expected to know everything. It was suspected that Mosey Mud Turtle senior, was the very oldest inhabitant, but as Mosey wasn't sure and no one else could remember, it couldn't be proved on him.

Besides Ringtail rather liked the honor. Ringtail absent minded took a cracker out of the cracker barrel and started to munch at it reflectively. "Did I tell you what happened to me in the last storm?" asked Daddy Cracknuts, who had already told the story at least two dozen times. "What was that?" asked Mister Bunnys, taking a cracker out of the cracker barrel.

"Well," began Daddy, "by the way, here, you might pass me part of your cracker, I had an early lunch and—"

Mister Bunnys took a whole new cracker out of the cracker barrel and passed it over. "Well, as I was saying," said Daddy, "I bought a brand new number-shoot from Mister Bags here, and also a pair of go-loshes, and started for Stony Creek where I had to do an errand for Ma, when an awful wind came up and—"

"Is that the day Reddy Fox got after you?" spoke up Mister Groundhog. He'd heard the story so many times, his ears were almost worn out as he told his wife afterwards. "Whether it was that or not, I don't know, but his ears didn't affect his appetite any, and he reached for a cracker out of the cracker barrel. "Yes," said Daddy in an offhand voice. He didn't say another word, though, about his adventures. He crunched sulkily at another cracker. When they had all gone, Nancy exclaimed, "Why, Mister Bags, the cracker barrel is empty! There isn't a single one left."

"I know," said the storekeeper, "it's often that way! But I can't help it. I have a plan," said Nick. So they all got their heads together. (To Be Continued)

COUNCIL HOLDS BRIEF MEETING

No Discussion on Petition for Operation of Lowell-Lawrence
Bus Line

Date for Hearing Set on Franchise Application for Bus Line to Pelham

Council Favors Restoration of the Street Railway
Transfer Privilege

Brevity held away at the adjourned session of the city council last night and a large volume of routine business, much of which was delayed by the all-night hearing on the motor bus proposal of last week, was quickly disposed of. The anticipated discussion and vote on the petition of the New England Motor Bus Co., which would operate a motor bus line from Lowell to Lawrence, failed to materialize.

The franchise application of P. C. Bailey and H. L. Peavy, who would operate a motor bus line from Cardinal O'Connell Parkway in this city through Dracut to Pelham, N. H., was read and a public hearing ordered on June 17. Hearings on petitions for local elections by public utility corporations will also be held on that date. Hearings on petitions for permission to erect garages and stores will be held on June 3. A number of petitions for installation or repairs of sidewalks, sewers, edgelines and catch-basins, as well as for street accommodations, were referred to the board of public service.

Many Invitations Read

A number of invitations were read and accepted as follows: Of Headmaster Harris of the high school, to review the parade Thursday noon in connection with the annual high school field day; of the Telephone company, to attend the practical first aid demonstration in Memorial Auditorium tonight; of the Broadway Social and Athletic club, to attend the special memorial services to the war dead of the Arm, at 8:45 o'clock Friday morning; and of the Memorial day committee, to participate in and review in the customary manner the annual Memorial day parade.

Six claims for injuries the outgrowth of accidents, were referred to the committee on claims. It was voted to ask Chairman Clarence M. Wood of the park commission to attend the next meeting of the council, on June 3, at which time the proposal of the park department that the sum slightly in excess of $7500 remaining unused from the Morey school playground extension appropriation be returned to the city treasury.

Councillor Daniel F. Cosgrove was named as official emissary of the council to confer with representatives of the trolley company, relative to fare reductions and the restoration of the transfer privilege in this city. The councillor introduced the subject and the body voted to instruct the city clerk to write the corporation requesting the desires of the councillor be complied with.

Police Station Question

A communication from Superintendent of Police Thomas H. Atkinson relative to the inadequacy of the present police station and city lock-up was referred to the committee on public property, which meets tomorrow night. Councillor Arthur Genest is chairman of this committee. Mr. Cosgrove suggested a special committee composed of the superintendent of police, the superintendent of buildings, and three councillors. Council President Gallagher and Councillor Sadler favored reference to the public property committee. Upon assurance that the committee is not so overburdened with work but that it will be able to diligently look into the matter, Mr. Cosgrove withdrew his motion.

Mr. Cosgrove moved, and it was voted, that the city clerk advise the superintendent of police that it is thought the present police station given the South common is inadequate. He then asked what is the status of the valuations sewer partial extension project for the carrying on of which the council several weeks ago appropriated $7500.

Informing by the president that the board of public service is to hold a public hearing on the matter tomorrow night he concurred with the suggestion of Councillor McFadden that

STORM DEATH TOLL 45

100 Persons Injured, Scores
Made Homeless and Property
Damage of $1,000,000

ATLANTA, Ga., May 28.—(By the Associated Press) The total known death toll of the series of tornadoes which swept the south yesterday, and Monday night for the second time, in a month, had mounted to 45 today. Approximately 130 persons are known to have been injured, scores made homeless and property damaged to the extent of more than one million dollars.

Mississippi with 22 dead and nearly 50 injured and Alabama with 19 dead and about 50 injured, bore the brunt of the disturbance, which left a path of desolation and ruin in the southern sections of the two states. In Oklahoma, four persons are known to have been killed and six injured, while Arkansas is believed to have escaped with three injured and minor property damage.

ASCENSION DAY IN CATHOLIC CHURCHES

Local Catholic churches will observe Ascension day tomorrow, one of the most important holy days of strict obligation in the calendar. The festival occurs on the 40th day after Easter Sunday and is commemorative of the ascension of Jesus Christ into heaven. On this occasion, the paschal candle, which has burned since Easter, will be extinguished after the gospel.

Masses will be celebrated at convenient hours in all the churches tomorrow morning, while special services will be held in the evening.

Individual Councillors View the Property to be Affected and Attend the Hearing

Jubilant Over Cash Return

Mr. Cosgrove called attention of his colleagues to the fact that the city is in a fair way to receive $50,000 or more as its share of the return to municipalities by the state of the surplus from poll tax assessments collected to defray the cost of the state bonus to participants in the recent war. He moved a vote, or thanks be extended Councillor John W. Bray in recognition of his efforts in bringing this to pass and the motion was carried.

Councillor Lambert introduced an order asking the board of public service to ascertain and report the cost of replacing the present street lights in Appleton street and Chelmsford street, from Gorham to Westford street, with Type B, or "white way" lights. The order was carried.

Many Other Orders

The body passed an order for the widening of Lakeview ave. at Ferry Lane and for the transfer of $1000 from the Hopedale Weight Centennial Trust fund to the Lowell Centennial Celebration Appropriation. It was voted, on motion of Mr. Lambert, to ask the ashes and waste department to remove ashes and waste from Branch court. At present it is necessary for residents there to move their barrels to Branch street, the nearest public way and about 50 yards distant, in order to obtain collection service.

Councillor McFadden introduced an order providing for expenditure of $15,000 to acquire for extension purposes land adjacent to the John J. O'Donnell playground. The city clerk was instructed to advertise the order which was referred to the committee on ordinances.

Call for Fire Chief

At the request of Councillor Lambert, a fire chief to attend the next council meeting at which time the order appropriating $75,000 for improving the equipment and training facilities of the department will come up for final reading.

The council convened at 8:30, adjourning at 10:10 o'clock. Councillor Chadwick was the only absentee. The gas probe committee held a brief session prior to the council meeting and the members, Messrs. Dickson, Lambert and Fitzgerald, decided to attend the hearing on local gas rates held today by the state utilities commission in Boston.

LOWELL AND THE TRANSFER PRIVILEGE

It is very doubtful at the present time if the local division of the street railway company could return the full transfer privilege as approved by the city council. The financial condition of the road is the main reason advanced by men connected with the company for their belief, for in their opinion the local division could not continue to meet operation expenses if the full transfer privilege was returned.

Manager McCormick of the local division would express no opinion concerning the council's action. He did say, however, that Lowell is the only city on the Eastern Massachusetts system where any transfer privileges at all are accorded. In all other cities, the fare limit is from the end of the line to the transfer point and anyone riding beyond the transfer point, even though they ride but a city block, must pay a second fare.

In this city, at the present time, transfer privileges are extended to persons riding to the square as far as the railroad station, postoffice, city hall, First street and High street. Persons embarking cars at the above mentioned points, are accorded transfer privileges to the end of the first fare zone within the city limits.

Passengers on electric cars in this city, said Manager McCormick, are allowed to ride equally as far for a single fare, if not a little farther, than on any other division on the Eastern Massachusetts system.

The question of transfer privileges has arisen several times in this city since the Bay State was taken over by trustees. When cars were operated by the Bay State on a 5 cent fare a person could ride from the end of any line in the city to the square, transfer there and ride to the end of any other line provided it did not run in the same direction as the line on which the passenger entered the square. When the trustees took over the road, in 1918, the transfer privilege was abolished and it was not until 1920 that the present system was put into effect.

SUPERIOR CIVIL COURT

Judge Charges Jury in Conners Bros. Case—Court
Suspends Tomorrow

Just before the mid-day recess of the superior civil court here today, Judge Greenhalge charged the jury in the action of contract brought by Edward F. Conners against his brother, Dennis E. Conners. This action involves the sale of land in Ayer City to the New Haven railroad for grade crossing purposes.

One of the features of the morning was the testimony of James C. Warner, an attorney and title examiner, who claims title to the land involved. Mr. Warner was engaged by the defendant to trace the title of the land and asserted on the stand that he personally claims title as a result of his investigation. The financing of construction work on the building of the postoffice in Detroit, Mich., by Conners Bros. Co. was discussed at length this morning. The plaintiff asserted that he had charge of the work and that Dennis, his brother and the defendant in this action, took care of the financing and the work in the firm office. He identified his signature on many documents and cancelled checks which were introduced, but said he had no knowledge of their contents at the time of signing, adding that up to the disagreement between them he always had implicit faith in his brother and signed anything he was asked to without regard as to what it was.

This between counsel over admission of evidence were frequent. Both sides rested at 11:15 and following a brief recess commenced arguments.

The plaintiff claimed the defendant owed him $480 and interest from Sept. 25, 1919, for money received July 11, 1911, on debt of the N. Y. & N. H. R. R. on account of sale of land. Frank Goldman for the plaintiff and Melvin Rogers of Qua, Howard & Rogers for the defendant.

Asst. City Treasurer Joseph Farrell and James C. Warner, attorney and title examiner, were called by the defendant this morning. They testified relative to the purchases of properties since 1909 by the defendant at tax sales.

End of Court Session

Clerk Roger Hurd stated no case was ready for trial at the conclusion of this case and endeavored to secure lawyers ready for trial on listed cases without avail. The court session, scheduled for eight weeks' duration, ends tomorrow. It has sustained several breakdowns during the term because of inability to find lawyers interested in listed cases ready for trial. The court will adjourn with a large volume of business unattended.

TWO PUBLIC HEARINGS

Important Hearings Tomorrow
by Service Board and Public Property Committee

Two hearings of interest to the public will be held at city hall tomorrow evening at 7:30 o'clock. The public service board will conduct hearings at this time on 16 petitions for street necessities, laying of edgelines and sewers, while the public property committee will hold a hearing on the proposed revision of the building ordinance.

While both hearings are scheduled to start at 7:30 o'clock in the council chamber, it is believed the public service board hearing will come first and will be concluded within a half-hour. The hearing on the building ordinance will follow in the same chamber.

The hearings scheduled by the public service board are on the following petitions: To accept Burdett street, to accept Monmouth avenue, from Princeton to Westford street; to lay edgelines in First street; to accept Parker road, Gibson road from Pine to Parker, and Florence road to a point 350 feet beyond Parker road; to accept Beacon terrace, Groves avenue, Remington street, Warren street from end of accepted portion of George street, to lay edgelines in Liberty street; for a sewer in Princeton street from the end of the present sewer to the city line, for the Oaklands sewer, to lay edgelines and build sidewalk from 66 to 148 Broadway, to lay edgelines at 2-5 Chaucery street, for a sewer in Barbara street to drain number 35, for edgelines at 549 Rogers street and Berkeley avenue abutting same property, and for a sewer in Woodstock st.

At 2 o'clock tomorrow afternoon, the public service board will view the petitions mentioned in the above petition and will be accompanied by members of the city council to view the proposed route of the Oaklands sewer, for the erection of which a $50,000 loan order was recently passed by the council. Following the hearing, the board will meet in the street department office to take action on the petitions.

The public hearing on the proposed revision of the building ordinance is of considerable interest to property owners in the city and it is expected that there will be a large attendance at the meeting. The public property committee of the council, which will conduct the hearing, consists of Arthur Finest, chairman; James J. Gallagher, Frederick A. Sadler, Arthur B. Chadwick and Daniel F. Moriarty.

LEVENSEN IS STATE WITNESS

Says Division of the "Spoils"
Not Honestly Made by
Corcoran and Coakley

Declares Corcoran Told Him
"Coakley Trimmed Us"—
Tells of "Shake Down"

CAMBRIDGE, May 28.—The division of the "spoils" was not honestly made by William J. Corcoran, former district attorney of Middlesex county, and Daniel H. Coakley, disbarred Boston lawyer, on trial in the superior court, charged with conspiracy to extort by threatening prosecution, according to Harry E. Levenson, a Boston lawyer and confessed blackmailer, who resumed his testimony today.

Levenson testified that when he failed to get his share in money alleged to have been paid by Adolph Zukor and other movie magnates to Coakley to keep quiet a "wild party" they had attended at Miskin-wum Manor," he asked Corcoran about it. Corcoran, he said, told him that he had not received anything either, and that he thought Coakley was "trimming" both him and Levenson.

"But when I saw Coakley," Levenson continued, "he told me that he had paid Corcoran for his part in the shake-down of the movie magnates."

"Well, how about me, Coakley?" Levenson testified he asked.

"Oh, I forgot all about you," was the only comment that Coakley would make, according to the witness.

Levenson told the court that when he discussed the matter of dividing spoils with a man called "Professor Lee" in Corcoran's presence, Corcoran said: "In some cases you get the money and keep it; in some cases I get it and keep it. But after all, we have a purpose in common."
